WILLIAM WATSON MIMS, JR.
Grand Master, 1971-72

WILLIAM WATSON MIMS, JR.

William Watson Mims, Jr., the One Hundred Fifteenth Mason of the Old North State to be accorded the great honor of Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons, comes to that exalted Oriental Chair with as complete an education and understanding of the workings of North Carolina Freemasonry as any of his predecessors, for since his appointment in 1963 as Grand Steward, he has so diligently applied himself to be ready for his great responsibilities to the Craft, having probably attended more official meetings of the Grand Lodge than any one brother.

Most Worshipful Brother Mims, with "an attentive ear," has served with distinction on every important Committee and Board of the Grand Lodge. His intimate knowledge of the Orphanage, the Home, Finance, Jurisprudence, Education and the general workings of the Board of General Purposes, combined with his close association with so many of his distinguished predecessors, makes of this dedicated brother one of the greatest assets of Tar Heel Freemasonry. A year from today, Freemasonry in North Carolina will be the greater because of having the services of William Watson Mims, Jr.

In the bright and sunny city of Kissimmee in Florida a little more than fifty years ago, June of 1916, William W. Mims, Sr. and his lovely lady, Florence, were, with five-year old daughter Mona, anxiously awaiting the arrival of a family addition. The sun never shone brighter in Florida than on the 19th day of June when William W. proudly announced to all of his friends that a son and heir had arrived. Mona acclaimed to all the neighbors her joy at having a baby brother. Later, the happy Mims family embodied another boy, Harold, in 1923, and another girl, Barbara, in 1928. Thus was the auspicious arrival of our Grand Master, William Watson Mims, Jr., then called and since known to us as "Bill."

The family moved to Charlotte in 1922, Bill attended Charlotte City Schools, as well as accounting school, following which for some eleven years he was an accountant for the National Baking Company. During this period, Bill made one of the most important and joyful decisions in his life when he married lovely Nelleen Cox, and today they enjoy so much their daughter Susan M. Kimrey of Hillsborough, N. C., who, with their son-in-law, Timothy H. Kimrey, a minister, are the proud parents of three-year-old granddaughter, Erin.

Bill petitioned and was initiated, passed and raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason in Joppa Lodge No. 530 (the Port of Friendship) in 1949. His talents that have so deservedly carried him to the apex of the Craft were even then quickly recognized, the elders utilizing the services of this outstanding quiet, young man since he was made Steward shortly thereafter serving with zeal and diligence and being subsequently honored by being elected Master of this fine Lodge, which station he so capably filled in 1957.

In 1949, he became a 32° Mason or Master of the Royal Secret. In recognition of his talents, Scottish Rite honored him with the rank and decoration of Knight Commander of the Court of Honour in 1967.

This great Mason's activities are all encompassing, having received the York Rite Degrees and Orders, including that of Super Excellent Master in 1953 in the Charlotte Bodies. He served Four Crowned Martyrs Council as its head and later affiliated with the Red Cross of Constantine and Societas Rosicruciani in Civitatibus Foederatis.

A Noble of Oasis Temple, Ancient and Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, he has served on many important committees. An active member of the Red Fez Club, Bill served on the Board of Directors from 1959 to 1962, and added during 1961 and 1962 the additional responsibilities of Secretary. To all of this an active membership in the Royal Order of Jesters would indicate a mighty heavy schedule.

An honorary member of the Grand Lodge of Nevada, he is a Charter Member of the distinguished Charlotte Athletic Club. And he still finds the time to render his services to his church, Dilworth United Methodist Church.

With all of the foregoing, one might ask where he finds the time, but when it is added to the above that his principal line of endeavor is that of being an active insurance executive, Vice President and Secretary of one of the finest agencies in North Carolina, one marvels at the astonishing talents and capabilities of this man.

A studious, devoted Mason and family man, one always feels the better and the richer for having been associated with William Watson Mims, Jr. The sixty-eight thousand Freemasons of North Carolina have again chosen well in their selection of a leader. His will be a great contribution to the Craft.

DISPENSED WITH LABOR

Labor was dispensed with in the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master directed the Grand Marshal to retire and present W. Brother John Verdery, State Executive Officer of the Order of DeMolay, W. Brother Paul C. Sherwood, and Steve Madison, State Master Councilor of the Order of DeMolay.

JOHN VERDERY:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Distinguished Guests and members of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, the award that we have today to present to M. W. Brother Harvey W. Smith, is an Honorary Membership in the International Supreme Council, Order of DeMolay. He is the first DeMolay in North Carolina to be elevated to the position of the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina. On March 31, 1971, in Sacramento, California, M. W. Brother Smith was singularly honored and recognized for having labored in Masonry and risen from the ranks of DeMolay to the exalted position of Grand Master. I am indeed sorry M. W. Brother Smith isn't with us at this time, but I shall present the medal to him at an appropriate time.

STEVE MADISON, STATE MASTER COUNCILOR:

Most Worshipful Grand Master and Gentlemen, I bring you greetings from all the DeMolays in North Carolina. We are the fifth best jurisdiction in the world. We want to show you, our sponsors, that we are earnestly striving to be the best DeMolays, that we are trying to provide honorable standards of living for ourselves. We have accomplished much this year. We hosted our International Master Councilor in Asheville, North Carolina, marshaling him on a tour of Oteen Hospital, as well as a tour of the city itself. We have had an outstanding initiatory class in honor of your Grand Master, M. W. Maurice E. Walsh, with record-breaking attendance. We held a Christmas service at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home in Greensboro, again, one of the largest ever. We were represented at Fourth International DeMolay Congress at Sacramento, California, and we placed fifth among all jurisdictions of the world, the highest we have placed in several years.

All of these activities sound rather impressive, but those are the things we do every year. What I want to tell you about today is something much more important than these statistics. I want to tell you what DeMolay really is and what it really means. DeMolays are pretty much the same all over. They are just average guys who make pretty good grades, play football on the team and go out on dates. There are guys like this all over the world, but DeMolays distinguish themselves. Put them together and you get a group in Asheville who hold Sunday Services at the Oteen Hospital and feed some of the patients who cannot feed themselves. You get a group in Boone who contributes annually to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home in Greensboro. You get a group in Thomasville that collects for the Heart Fund and washes police cars. They are bound together in a group by a common bond—they are members of the Order of DeMolay.

Perhaps the most significant thing that DeMolay represents to us is an institution created by Masons and young men, both interested in forming good citizens. It takes a joint effort. Your sponsorships of our order helps to instill in us trust, respect and love for your generation, something that is quite uncommon today. DeMolay provides the channel for communication, the common bond that unites us. When others outside our organization find efforts to communicate are in vain, we often find they are fruitless. I have never found a Mason who had too little time to listen to a DeMolay. If you want to communicate, my very presence here proves that. Let me assure you that any efforts to communicate will be rewarded. Such is the reciprocal nature of our organization. DeMolay is an organization in which begins a young man's preparation and training for Masonry. The DeMolay example is the Masonic example, and that is why you are our advisors. That is why we call you Dad. You are our teachers throughout DeMolay life. DeMolay must follow its seven cardinal virtues—filial love, reverence to sacred things, courtesy, comradeship, fidelity, cleanliness, and patriotism, all of which are consistent with Masonic ideals. We have secret rituals as do the Masons. Our martyr is Jacque DeMolay, the last head of the Knights Templar, a truly faithful Masonic idealist. With so many likenesses and so much cooperation, how can DeMolay help but train its members to be Masons. So, you see you play a very large part in the best of all youth organizations, the Order of DeMolay. You are our Dads, our patriarchs in fraternal work. When a DeMolay is 21, he will receive his majority and become inactive. He will pause and reflect on his active DeMolay life. He will remember all the Masons he has met through DeMolay. He will remember the helpful advice given by Masons as Chapter Advisors. He will remember all the activities, all the fun, all the worthwhile endeavors of DeMolay and he will think about what it would be like to be a Mason.

I challenge you to do what you have done here today by honoring me on a local and more personal level—visit a DeMolay Chapter and give us moral support. Be there to help us. Give us a chance to know more of you Masons. If you will do this, if you will help us to be the best, I promise you the best. I will promise you young men who will petition your lodges with Masonic ideals already at heart. Thank you for your support and a chance to speak here today.

LABOR RESUMED

M. W. Maurice E. Walsh, Grand Master, expressed the appreciation of the Grand Lodge to Mr. Madison and W. Brother Verdery for having addressed the Grand Lodge and urged the membership to continue their active support and participation in the work of the Order of DeMolay in North Carolina. Mr. Madison was then escorted out of the Grand Lodge and labor was resumed.

APPRECIATION

This has been another fine year with another outstanding and hard working man at the helm as our Most Worshipful Grand Master. Brother Walsh inaugurated the Masonic Education Program that had been in the planning stage throughout the administration of his predecessor, Brother Hooks, and the results have been most gratifying.

Brother Walsh has been invited to speak on the subject of Masonic Education and on Unity, by other Grand Lodges, and by related organizations both within and without our state. An outstanding event took place on January 16, 1971 when the heads of the Scottish and York Rite Bodies, and the two Shrine Temples in our state took part in a program on the subject of UNITY. Brother Henry C. Clausen, the Sovereign Grand Commander of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite for the Southern Jurisdiction of the U. S. A., was one of the speakers.

It has been a privilege and a pleasure to work with this fine man, and our best wishes go with him always.

And to Brothers Dudley and Harrington and these fine girls in our office, my sincere thanks and appreciation. To them must go the thanks for whatever good service is rendered to the Craft in North Carolina by this office.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES A. HARRIS, Grand Secretary

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

(Docket No. 3)

The following report of Brother Walter A. Watts, Certified Public Accountant, Auditor, was presented, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I have examined the General Fund balance sheet of The Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina as of April 30, 1970 and the related statement of income and expense for the twelve months then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other audit procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

Certain changes in accounting procedure should be noted. In prior years, income from the sale of books was shown in Exhibit C under the general heading of "miscellaneous income." For the year ended April 30, 1970, income from the sale of books was deposited in a special savings account which is being used as a reserve for book purchases. Books purchased during the year were charged to the reserve account. Another change worthy of mention is that the cost of acquiring a new car for the Grand Master was deferred so that in future years, the cost of trading cars will be an expense in the year of the Grand Master who uses the car.

Changes in the Building Fund Reserve and The Reserve for Book Purchases are shown in detail in Exhibit D.

In my opinion, the afore-mentioned balance sheet and the related statement of income and expense present fairly the financial position of the General Fund of the Grand Lodge as of April 30, 1970 and the results of operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis, except as set forth in the second paragraph of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER A. WATTS,
Grand Lodge Accountant

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OXFORD ORPHANAGE

(Docket No. 7)

The following report of the Committee on Oxford Orphanage was presented, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

All members of this Committee made an official visit to Oxford Orphanage on February 20, 1971.

The Committee accompanied by Brother Donald L. Sizemore (Staff Member) toured the campus and various buildings of the Orphanage. We were served a delicious lunch in the dining hall and had many opportunities to talk with the children.

Brother A. D. Leon Gray, Superintendent, who was recovering from the flu, invited us to his home. We discussed numerous Orphanage activities with both he and Mrs. Gray. The cottage building program is on schedule and Brother Gray was most complimentary of the Orphanage Committees in each subordinate lodge for the outstanding job they continue to do.

During our visit we found some of the living quarters for staff members to be far below standard. One home has not been occupied for a long period and is beyond repair. We recommended this home be replaced in the immediate future and serious consideration be given to renovating and replacement of others. This action is necessary in order to keep the Orphanage in a position to compete for qualified personnel and possible securing the services of a full time Chaplain.

The Grand York Rite Bodies in their annual meeting established a new Education Fund to help further the education of our children beyond the High School level. This fund is in addition to and in no way supplants any of the funds now being received by the Orphanage. All gifts can be accepted by this fund and the principal is never to be used. The income from the fund only will be given to the students selected. The Trustees of this fund are Brother Hiram Casebolt of Raleigh; Brother R. Tyler Freeman of Lexington, Brother Alva L. Williams of New Bern, Brother Tam Shumaker and Most Worshipful Brother Maurice E. Walsh of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. BRYAN, JR., Chairman

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 8)

The following report of Brother Troy G. Robbins, Superintendent of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Inc. was presented and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

One hundred and forty Guests are now living at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, all of whom are numbered among the 726 who have been enrolled as Guests of the Home during its existence. More than 150 deserving people have been financially assisted who were unable to be admitted into the Home. We lost 19 Guests during 1970 by death and had one to voluntarily withdraw, making it possible for us to admit 20 Guests from our approved waiting list. Presently we have 43 people whose applications have been approved and they are waiting for admission. More than $1,500,000.00 has been contributed to the Home from the Masons of this Grand Jurisdiction over the past ten years, and of that amount $165,730.00 was received during 1970. There has been a gradual increase in monetary support for the Home for the past 12 consecutive years, both from the Masons and the Eastern Stars. It goes without saying that along with the increased revenue there has been a corresponding increase in operating expenses of the Home. Last year a total of $387,534.68 was disbursed for the operation of the Home. At the same time, $309,987.00 was paid to various contractors for work on the new Care Center.

At this writing we have received almost $32,000.00 given by Lodges, Chapters and other interested Masonically related clubs and friends for the specific purpose of furnishing the 35 rooms in the new Care Center. Already we have received commitments from several Lodges and Chapters as to their desire to furnish a room when the top floor of the Care Center is completed. Contributions were received from all the Lodges in this Grand Jurisdiction during the year 1970 with the exception of 43. Of these 43 Lodges, 13 sent contributions in by the date of this writing, January 25, 1971. In the following breakdown of the 1970 receipts you will readily see the source of our income which is used to meet our Masonic responsibilities. You will note that we receive no monies from any Governmental agency.

Our Share of Guest's Income-----	$112,504.00
Miscellaneous Receipts-----	25.00
Blue Lodge Receipts of this Jurisdiction-----	165,730.00
Grand Lodge of North Carolina-----	50,000.00
Grand Chapter of North Carolina, O. E. S.-----	91,756.00
	$420,015.00

Our budget for 1971 is $455,563.68, this being $52,000.00 more than the budget for 1970. Most of this increase is due to a compulsory hourly rate increase on the minimum wage. This minimum wage has been increased at the rate of 15¢ per hour since February, 1967, making our current minimum wage rate $1.60 per hour. As your Superintendent, I am real pleased at the progressive increase in interest and monetary support of the Home over the past several consecutive years. I am sure I speak the sentiments of every loyal and interested Mason and Eastern Star. However, I must say that since the North Carolina Department of Public Health has, in effect, condemned three of our buildings; namely, the Eastern Star and Shriner's Wings and the main building making it necessary for us to remove all Guests from these areas, we must proceed with great haste in providing living quarters for these Guests who are still ambulatory. It is my feeling that because of the urgency of the hour, it would be more expedient and feasible for us to proceed with the completion of the top floor of the Care Center, making space for ambulatory Guests or semi-invalids and use the Latham building in its present condition for Guests and employees rather than spend considerable money for the renovation or improvements of the Latham building at this time.

On behalf of our Guests and every staff member I say, "Thank you sincerely for the privilege of being associated with the Masons and Eastern Stars of this Grand Jurisdiction in this worthy effort of providing a home for those to whom we are definitely responsible."

Respectfully submitted,

TROY G. ROBBINS, Superintendent

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 9)

The Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Inc., presented the following report, which was received, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

Every Mason and Eastern Star in this Grand Jurisdiction will swell with pride as he takes a brief look in retrospect at the operation of his Home in Greensboro. You will recall that it was in New Bern, during the annual communication of the Grand Lodge, that a ten year home expansion program was launched. The following is a breakdown as to the receipts and disbursements for the ten consecutive years beginning with 1961.

Year	Grand Lodge	Subord. Lodges	Guests	O.E.S.	Misc.	Operat. Expense	Spent on New Facilities
1961	16,000	60,412	57,300	31,855	2467	136,346	16,519
1962	20,000	71,430	44,819	41,408	1775	150,107	149,228
1963	21,500	75,666	97,841	31,563	81	172,621	29,364
1964	21,500	101,814	35,230	67,127	316	183,337	17,058
1965	21,500	110,916	46,313	79,195	73	193,615	51,506
1966	50,000	124,234	52,073	95,235	73	206,624	126,968
1967	50,000	132,207	75,656	74,476	124	245,615	46,880
1968	50,000	142,056	90,899	88,283	38	295,678	10,461
1969	50,000	149,982	105,621	94,174	30	321,278	513,019
1970	50,000	165,730	112,504	91,756	25	367,534	309,987

From the above statistics we are startled to realize that the cost of operating the Home has doubled since 1964. More than a million dollars has been spent on new facilities during these ten years while during the same period we paid out more than two and one quarter million dollars in operating expense.

I can imagine that someone on seeing these figures would exclaim, "Gee whiz!! my little contribution was pretty small." Even so, my friends, your gift, however modest, when added to countless others, made it possible for us to write this enviable record of benevolence on behalf of the Home which is dear to all our hearts.

Two hundred and thirty-four Guests were admitted into the Home in the last decade. Last year we admitted only twenty people as we lost nineteen by death and had one voluntary withdrawal.

I am very pleased to point out the fact that contributions from the Eastern Stars increased from $31,855 in 1961 to $91,756 in 1970. The support from the Masons increased from $76,412 in 1961 to $215,730 in 1970. Any way you look at these increases you must admit that the interest growth in our Masonic and Eastern Star Home is phenomenal indeed.

For the past seven years the Masons have been paying $12,000 each year and the Eastern Stars have been paying $8,000 each year into our Capital Improvement fund. When you consider the $1,114,540 expended for new facilities in light of the preceding statement you can readily see a considerable difference. This additional money was realized by the sale of personal property conveyed to the Home by various Guests upon their admission. The policy of the Home to credit this type of income to Capital Improvements is the real reason we have our Dining Room, seventy new bedrooms and our new Care Center which is nearing completion.

This is my eighth report as President and I can safely say without fear of contradiction that the entire membership of your Board of Directors intend to continue their work, even at a sacrifice. We will strive to build your Masonic and Eastern Star Home into that best possible place where our deserving brothers and sisters can come for a time to be free from the cares of life and after that, they will not be Guests for they will be at home with God.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT N. BASS, JR., President

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME INC.

(Docket No. 10)

The following report of the Committee on the Masonic and Eastern Star Home was received, entered on the record, and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Members of your Masonic and Eastern Star Home Committee visited the home on several occasions during this past year. The annual meeting and visitation of the committee to the Masonic and Eastern Star Home was held on March 28, 1971, when Brother Kedar D. Pyatt, Mrs. Pyatt, Brother Walter J. Church, Mrs. Church, my wife and I met at the home at 12:30 P.M. We were met by Brother Troy Robbins and Mrs. Murray, treated to an excellent meal and started our visit of the home.

We visited all the main building of the home, with special emphasis on the new Care center and Latham Hall.

The new Care Center is now opened and practically filled to capacity. Fifty-two guests can be accommodated on the first and second floors. The Care Center is a joy to behold and a much needed addition to our home. Your committee was informed by Brother Robbins that the bids for completion of the third floor would be opened on March 30, 1971. The estimated cost of the much needed completion of the top floor is approximately $90,000.00. When completed, the 14 additional rooms will provide space for 28 additional guests. The need for this completed space is great, and we urge all concerned to proceed with the early completion of the Care Center.

The ground floor of the Care Center is nearing completion and is being used at this time. Installation of certain physical therapy equipment on hand will increase the use of this floor in the very near future.

The Care Center is truly a tribute to The Masons and Eastern Stars of North Carolina. All who have contributed to the worthy cause can be justifiably proud.

Latham Hall is in the process of being renovated to furnish living quarters for sixteen guests. Brother Robbins estimates the cost of this renovation to be approximately $10,000 to $11,000. The estimated completion and occupancy date is September 1, 1971.

The State Board of Health has declared the Shrine wing, the Eastern Star wing and the main building of the home unsafe. Temporary repairs have been made to meet emergent requirements, but we must replace these building with new structures in the very near future. These buildings were clean and in good repair, but do not meet the modern day specifications and standards of the State Board of Health.

All other buildings of the home complex were in good to excellent condition, the grounds are being maintained in good condition, the kitchens, dining rooms and other facilities seem to be excellent. The moral of the guests seemed excellent, all guests were neat and presented a pleasing outlook to the members of your committee.

In a lengthy discussion of the financial matters of the home, the subject of an assessment for the home received considerable attention. Your committee realizes that voluntary contributions for the care of our elderly citizens and loved ones in the home have been tremendous, and we can be proud of our contributions and actions. By the same token, in view of the continuing increasing cost of living and operation of the home, our voluntary contributions must be increased to provide the same level of care for our loved ones. We know any assessment would be unpopular, but we feel that this would provide the finances needed, should our voluntary contributions fail. Your committee urges each Mason and each Lodge in North Carolina to redouble their efforts toward voluntary contributions, and eliminate the need for any assessment at any future date. If each Mason would contribute the cost of one day's care for a guest at the home, or if each Lodge would set as their Masonic and Eastern Star Home goal the cost of one day's care for a guest for each member of the Lodge, the financial worries of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home would not exist, and the need for an assessment would never come.

Your committee was pleased with what we saw, with what the Superintendant and Staff of the home are doing, with the improvements being made, with the administration of affairs of the home by the Officers and Directors, and, finally, we urge every Mason in North Carolina to visit the home, see what his contribution is doing, then all our financial cares will be over.

It has truly been a privilege serving on this committee. Our thanks and appreciation go out to Superintendent Troy G. Robbins and his staff for the wonderful work they are doing.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK E. COPELAND, JR., Chairman

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC.

(Docket No. 11)

The following report of the Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage was presented, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage herewith submits its report to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

The Board of Directors held its regular meetings throughout the year and reviewed the activities of the Orphanage program. The Executive Committee and the Local Advisory Board held their meetings and made full reports to the Board of Directors. Because of the exemplary harmony of the administration and staff, the Board of Directors found great joy in efficiently administering all the affairs of the Orphanage.

The year ending September 30, 1970, was another eventful year for Oxford Orphanage. In spite of the sharp rise of the cost of living, our Masonic Family again enriched its expressions of love. In spite of serious illness among our staff of workers, our family at Oxford sacrificially accomplished its job. In spite of all obstacles, the goals were achieved and the crown jewel of Masonic Love continues to crown our Masonic Image in our family at Oxford Orphanage.

The Robert L. Flowers Cottage was completed and twenty older boys found a new fireproof home. The Second Boys' Cottage was dismantled and a new cottage for twenty-four small boys is under construction.

During the year we averaged 291 children per day. We closed the year with an enrollment of 291 children and are busy processing applications. The children are enrolled from 48 counties.

With understandable pride we approve the program of training for our children. We rejoice in witnessing the transformation of children from destitution to productive citizens.

Because of the beauty of our institution and the joy of our childlife, we urge each Lodge to plan a visit and spend a day of happiness in the heart of Masonic philanthropy at Oxford Orphanage.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Directors of the Oxford Orphanage, Inc.

and Chairman*

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF OXFORD ORPHANAGE, INC.

(Docket No. 12)

The Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage presented the following supplemental report, which was received, entered on the record and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Board of Directors and Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage published and circulated its Annual Report to the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in December, 1970. This report included the fiscal year ending September 30, 1970. Herewith we make a progress report for the six months period between our last published report and the meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Normal progress has been made in the erection of a new boys' cottage which will be completed for occupancy during the month of May. This cottage will furnish fireproof, comfortable living quarters for twenty-four of our mid-teen boys and replace the old Second Boys Cottage in the center of our campus.

When the fiscal year closed, the Orphanage had an enrollment of 291 children, being 139 girls and 152 boys. We now have 304 children enrolled, being 157 boys and 147 girls. This is the fifth year where we have had vacancies for girls and a waiting list for boys. At the present time we are processing additional applications for admission of children into Oxford Orphanage during the coming summer.

We are exceedingly grateful to our Masonic brethren, the Orphanage Committees and the Masonic Lodges for their very generous support in voluntary contributions, enabling us to maintain the training program and keep on schedule in our long range building program so that in a few years our entire family will be housed in fireproof cottages of great beauty.

We urge the members of our Masonic fraternity to visit Oxford Orphanage and share with us the beauty of our large family of children.

We recommend that the Grand Lodge continue the same appropriation for the support of Oxford Orphanage for the present year.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Directors of Oxford Orphanage, Inc.

and Chairman*

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

(Docket No. 13)

The report of the Committee on Masonic Education was presented by M. W. Brother Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M. and referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the year 1970, the Grand Lodge of A.F. & A.M. of North Carolina took its first major step in the field of Masonic Education. At the Grand Lodge Annual Communication in Durham last April, the Grand Lodge itself adopted a resolution creating the Committee on Masonic Education as a permanent function of the Grand Lodge, thus dedicating itself to a continuing program of Masonic Education.

Although North Carolina had had a number of miscellaneous educational programs instituted during the previous years by a number of Grand Masters, they were all more or less minor in nature and were subject to the enthusiasm or lack of enthusiasm of each particular Grand Master. The action of the Grand Lodge in Durham, however, makes a continuing program of education an imperative so far as a responsible and obligatory function of the Grand Lodge is concerned.

This decision was brought about through the cooperation of the preceding Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother William A. Hooks, who, in conjunction with the present Grand Master and the next three Grand Lodge Officers who will ascend to that august position, realized that the time had come when North Carolina must respond to the needs of their brethren in a manner more adequate than heretofore. Consequently, the resolution was prepared and approved and during the past year, Most Worshipful Brother Maurice E. Walsh, the Grand Master, entered upon the first year of activity in implementing a program on Masonic Education that would find its way into every Lodge in North Carolina.

In order that the responsibility on the local level might be definitely pinpointed, a new officer was created to be known as the District Education Officer, or as he is known by his initials: DEC. These new officials were to be responsible for the implementation of the Education Program in every Lodge in each District, the DEC acting in cooperation with the DDGM and the DDGL.

Materials were prepared and the Program was approved. In order that it might be explained to the brethren, the Grand Master held a series of Area Conferences, followed by a series of District Conferences, and in each of these the burden of responsibility was placed upon the DEC's, the DDGM's and the DDGL's who were to return to their own respective Districts and plan for a workshop in each District. They were encouraged to have as many workshops during the year as they could find time available and in many instances reports have been provided indicating that in a large number of Districts two, and in some instances even three workshops were held.

The results have been gratifying. As an incentive to each Lodge, an award entitled "The Grand Master's Award" was prepared and qualifications for winning this award were approved. This award is a very beautiful representation of activities on the part of the local Lodges and from all reports that have been received there will be a very large number of Lodges in the State who will be privileged to receive "The Grand Master's Award" from the hands of Grand Master Walsh during the Annual Communication in Raleigh.

Plans are now being made for the forthcoming year, under the direction of the new Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother William W. Mims, Jr. Materials will be prepared and meetings will be held throughout the State in order that the work that was begun so well during the year 1970 might proceed with even greater emphasis and with more beneficial results during the year 1971.

A request for a sufficient amount of funds to cover the necessary costs of the program has been filed with the Committee on Finance.

ROBERT L. PUGH, Chairman

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA MASON

(Docket No. 14)

The following report of the Board of Publication of The North Carolina Mason was received, entered on the record and adopted. The portion involving finances was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the year 1970-71, the Board of Publication has made every effort to come forth with such improvements in "The North Carolina Mason" as would be possible within the framework of the budgeted funds.

One very important change in the composition of the Board took place during the year when the Board of Publication and the Grand Lodge of Masons suffered an irreparable loss in the sudden passing of Most Worshipful Brother William J. (Dick) Bundy, Past Grand Master, who had served as the Chairman of the Board of Publication from the year of its inception. Brother Bundy's service to this Publication had been invaluable, characteristic of his services to Masonry in general and the Board of Publication was stirred with a deep sense of loss in the direction and guidance he had given to the Publication.

At the meeting of the Board of Publication in North Wilkesboro a successor to Most Worshipful Brother Bundy was approved by the Board of General Purposes, and Brother William E. Fulmer, Professor of Education of Appalachian State University in Boone, North Carolina was selected to replace Brother Bundy on the Board of Publication. When the Board of Publication met subsequent to this appointment, Brother Fulmer was likewise elected as Chairman of the Board. In his capacity as Chairman, he has served well and he has already demonstrated the fact that he has an excellent knowledge of the problems with which the Board is confronted in providing a Publication worthy of the Masons in North Carolina. He is serving most effectively as Chairman and his guidance and direction have already been demonstrated in a very fine and progressive manner.

During the year it had become evident to the Board of Publication that perhaps one of the great needs facing the Board now and in the future was to provide an Editor, who could serve the Publication on a full time basis, and who would be provided with sufficient remuneration to permit him to visit various centers in North Carolina where Masonic events were transpiring and who could provide an article that would be of interest to the brethren throughout the State.

The Board of Publication is deeply appreciative of the efforts that had been made by Brother Allen Colenda, who is the head of the Printing Department of Oxford Orphanage, and who agreed to assume the role of Editor for the Publication on a limited basis. It was recognized that Brother Colenda's duties as head of the Printing Department would preclude his getting around throughout the State to provide articles that would be of Masonic interest for the Publication. Brother Colenda's great talent lay in the field of mechanics of the Publication, and in this respect he did an excellent job. For his efforts and for his labors the Board is deeply appreciative.

Pursuing the Board's conclusion that a full time Editor would be necessary to bring about certain changes in the Publication, a Mason of sterling qualities and experience was contacted and, following the necessary interviews, it was agreed by the Board that he would be offered the position on a full time basis and that he would be charged with the responsibility of providing a Publication that would be a departure from the old concept of the "Orphans Friend". The man selected for this purpose is a man with much experience in the business world; likewise he has been a frequent contributor to a few publications of Masonic nature in North Carolina and whose writings have been judged excellent in nature, content and in interest. Furthermore, he has had much experience in the broad avenues of Masonry; he knows Masonry in all of its various workings and is fully qualified to assume the responsibilities as Editor of The North Carolina Mason. This man, Brother Reynold S. Davenport of Jacksonville, North Carolina, has been selected for that purpose and it is believed that this change will mark the best step that has as yet been taken by the Board of Publication in providing a more interesting news media.

A budget for the ensuing year has been prepared and has been submitted to the Committee on Finance.

The Board of Publication is happy to inform you that every Mason in North Carolina is now receiving monthly his copy of the North Carolina Mason at no cost to the member. The Board has constantly been confronted with a number of problems associated with such a tremendous enterprise, and it has sought diligently to eliminate these problems. The Board is not yet fully satisfied with its product, but it does believe that the change now contemplated, will produce a Publication in which we can take a justifiable pride.

The Board will continue its close examination and scrutiny of the Publication and will continue to make such changes as it deems advisable.

Respectfully submitted,
WILLIAM E. FULMER, Chairman

A REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE MASONIC SERVICE ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

(Docket No. 15)

M. W. Brother Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M., Representative to the Masonic Service Association of the United States, presented the following report, which was read and entered on the record. The recommendation that the Grand Lodge continue its membership in the Masonic Service Association of the United States for the ensuing year was unanimously adopted and the matter of finances referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Representative to this Association was ill at the time of the meeting of the Association and was, therefore, unable to attend. My good friend, Most Worshipful Brother Alfred A. Kafer, Jr., Past Grand Master, agreed to take notes on the meetings and to report his findings to the Representative. For the information that is included in this report, therefore, the Representative is deeply indebted to Most Worshipful Brother Kafer.

The fifty-second annual meeting of the Masonic Service Association of the United States met in the Diplomat Room of the Shoreham Hotel on February 22, 1971, beginning at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, in our Nation's Capital, Washington, D. C. There was a large delegation of the North Carolina Grand Lodge Officers present for the purpose of listening to a report on the progress of the Association during the preceding year.

The meeting was called to order by Most Worshipful Newell A. Lamb of Indiana, the Chairman of the Executive Commission. After the roll call of the member Grand Lodges and the Word of Welcome by the Grand Master of the District of Columbia, Most Worshipful Brother Robert F. Sutphin, the members proceeded to elect Most Worshipful Brother Stanley A. Johnston, Grand Master of New Hampshire, as the Chairman of the Meeting.

During the report of the Committee on Education and Publications, by Most Worshipful Brother Charles E. White, Grand Master of Wisconsin, our own Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Maurice E. Walsh, was called upon to make a report on the Masonic Education Program as it had been implemented in North Carolina during his year as Grand Master. Needless to say, our Grand Master gave an excellent report which was well received.

The report on the work of the year was presented by the Chairman of the Commission, Most Worshipful Brother Lamb. He reported that during the year the State of Texas had discontinued its membership and that the membership of the Association now continues at forty-two Grand Lodges.

No call was made upon the Association in 1970 to solicit help, aid and assistance because of disaster in any of the Grand Lodges of the United States. Outside of the United States, assistance had been rendered to distressed brother Masons in the Country of Peru. Many of our Grand Lodges, North Carolina included, contributed liberally and the money thus collected was used to provide blankets, shelter, clothing, powdered milk and medicines, and where homes could be repaired, to assist brethren who lacked adequate means for that purpose. These were the distresses caused by severe earthquakes in our sister South America Republic of Peru which caused widespread devastation, death, and hardship.

All Digests, Short Talk Bulletins, Programs, Reports, etc., are distributed throughout the member Grand Lodges as issued to Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Secretaries, and to such District Deputy Grand Masters, heads of Committees and present and past Grand Lodge Officers as the Grand Masters in member Grand Jurisdictions have designated.

During the year 1970, twelve issues of the Short Talk Bulletin were released, making a total of five hundred, seventy-six of these bulletins now in print. These Bulletins, together with the leaflet entitled "Your Masonic Hospital Visitor", are sent regularly to every constituent Lodge in all member Grand Lodges in care of the Officer designated by the Grand Lodge.

The Association also has four 16-millimeter sound films which have been very, very popular. All four of these are inspirational addresses which require a 16-millimeter sound projector and all of them run approximately thirty minutes. They continue to be a popular source of program material in the constituent Lodges of member Grand Lodges.

The Masonic Hospital Visitation Program carried on by this Association had its beginning in 1944. The program's principle handicap is the fact that it is not well enough known, especially among Masons. As one brother wrote after being visited by a Masonic Field Agent in a Veterans Hospital, "I didn't know there was an Association of this kind". We believe that when the members of the craft really know what our Field Agents are doing, the support which this Program needs will be forthcoming and the work of Freemasonry will be strengthened.

North Carolina is particularly happy at this time to report that it now has a Hospital Visitation Program operating in every Veteran's Administration Hospital in North Carolina. The last area to come into this Program was formulated last April in Durham when our Chief Field Agent, Brother William C. Edmunds, met with several of the Durham brethren to discuss the possibilities of a volunteer Hospital Visitation Program in that area. The organization was perfected and it is doubtful, indeed, that the Masonic Service Association can boast anywhere of a more active or dedicated program in any of the Veteran's Hospitals that are now being served. This represents quite a triumph indeed and North Carolina is proud of the fact that all Veteran Centers are now being served.

Our Chief Field Agent, Brother William C. Edmunds, and his Deputy Representative, Field Agent Paul S. Murphy, of Washington, D. C., continue to serve as Masonry's Representative on the National Committee of the V. A. voluntary service. We regret to announce that during the meeting of the Association in Washington, Brother Edmunds elected to tender his retirement, effective as of April 30, 1971.

Brother Edmunds has been a dedicated servant of this program. He has given liberally and generously of his time and of his talents. He has been a most dedicated servant to the Hospital Visitation Program and the astounding success with which the programs are now operating in our Veterans Hospitals is due, in no small measure, to his tireless zeal and dedication to the Program. We regret very much that Brother Edmunds sees fit to retire, but we wish for him a long and happy life of continued usefulness and service to the brethren who love him so much.

There is still a challenge for Masons in North Carolina. Higher costs are becoming a serious factor in maintaining the program of brotherly love and relief. Last year the Grand Lodge of North Carolina contributed FOUR THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS to the Hospitalization Program and it is recommended that an equal amount be placed in the budget for the ensuing year. It is recommended also that North Carolina continue its membership in the Masonic Service Association.

The need becomes greater every day, and since North Carolina receives so very much in terms of services from the Masonic Service Association in this Hospital Visitation Program than North Carolina has been contributing, we must continue to render as much assistance as we possibly can.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. PUGH, 33°, Representative

REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

(Docket No. 16)

M. W. Brother Robert L. Pugh, P. G. M., Representative to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, presented the following report, which was adopted. The portion of the report having to do with finance was referred to the Committee on Finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Your Representative to this Association was ill at the time of the meeting of the Association and was, therefore, unable to attend. My good friend, Most Worshipful Brother Alfred A. Kafer, Jr., Past Grand Master, agreed to take notes on the meetings and to report his findings to the Representative. For the information that is included in this report, therefore, the Representative is deeply indebted to Most Worshipful Brother Kafer.

The sixty-first Annual Convention of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association met on Shooters Hill in Alexandria, Virginia, Monday morning, February 22, 1971, at 10:00 o'clock in the beautiful Memorial Auditorium with the President, John H. Hessey, Past Grand Master of Maryland, presiding. The Address of Welcome was given by the Most Worshipful Grand Master of The Commonwealth of Virginia and greetings were also extended by the Worshipful Master of Alexandria—Washington Lodge No. 22. Immediately after this, the distinguished guests from all over the world were introduced.

The customary committees were appointed, providing for the visit to the Tomb of George Washington and the placing of the wreath therein and also a Committee on Nominations.

President Hessey then made his annual report. He emphasized the fact that the endowment fund had not grown as had been anticipated, stating that it now has a fund balance of two million, six hundred eighty-five thousand, four hundred forty-three dollars and eighty-two cents. The brethren in North Carolina will remember that a few years ago, the Association established a goal of five million dollars and had sought annually thereafter to get the various Grand Lodges to adopt what had become known as the Pennsylvania Plan of giving. Some of the States have done this, North Carolina being one of them, but as yet, we regret to report that the majority of the States have not made an extended effort in this direction.

Most Worshipful Brother Hessey reported that the new heating plant which had been installed at a cost of one hundred thirty-two thousand dollars has now been completed and that it is operating in a splendid manner. He reported also that the Association would like very much to implement the shrubbery project to beautify and to landscape the grounds but that, as yet, sufficient funds are not on hand. He reported that the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania had contributed the sum of fifteen thousand dollars for this purpose and that he hoped very much that other Grand Lodges would be generous in their contributions.

The Secretary-Treasurer, Brother Marvin Fowler, reported that the memorial, during the past calendar year, had over one hundred seventy-five thousand visitors, all of whom were pleased with the exhibits and who commented profusely on the general appearance of beauty and cleanliness of the building.

He stated also that the sixteen page color booklet on the Memorial, which was completed the year before, has met with tremendous success and that it is available to anyone at a cost of fifty cents per copy. Our Lodges in North Carolina would do well to obtain a supply of these booklets for distribution among their members in order that they might learn something of the impressive memorial that we have in Alexandria.

It is interesting, also, to note that during the year more than fifty Masonic Lodges from other jurisdictions held meetings in the Memorial. Some Lodges from North Carolina have visited the Memorial and have held meetings in the Lodge room there.

The Association also has some beautiful colored slides showing the various apartments of the Memorial that are available to the Lodges in North Carolina upon request. There is also a 16 millimeter sound, colored film which describes the Memorial in all of its beautiful details. These make excellent programs for Lodges desiring to use them.

North Carolina, of course, adopted the Pennsylvania Plan several years ago and completed it. Not enough Grand Lodges have contributed sufficiently, however, to provide the endowment fund with an amount which would, with the interest derived therefrom, permit the Association to operate without the necessity of an annual contribution of funds from the Grand Lodges. Until that time comes, the Grand Lodge of North Carolina feels it is a continuing obligation on its part to continue its annual contribution to the Association of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, and your Representative herewith makes this recommendation.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. PUGH, 33°, Representative

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC CEREMONIES AND MISCELLANEOUS PUBLICATIONS

(Docket No. 17)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications was read and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

During the year 1970 the Committee on Masonic Ceremonies and Miscellaneous Publications utilized practically all of its time and attention in the preparation of literature and other materials that could be used in conjunction with the Grand Lodge's Program on Masonic Education. These materials were distributed and explained to the Masters, Wardens, and other Officers of the Lodges in North Carolina during the Area Conferences and District meetings and Workshops conducted by the Grand Master during the year. They were also placed in the hands of the Counselor Committee and the Committee on Masonic Education from each Lodge and discussions were held demonstrating the appropriate use of these materials.

The little pamphlet entitled "On The Threshold" was re-printed year before last and one of them is being sent to each petitioner who has been elected to receive the degrees of Masonry. This pamphlet is forwarded to him, together with a letter of Greeting from the Grand Master. It is quite likely that the other three booklets or pamphlets in the series, and which are made available to the Secretary of each Lodge on demand, will need to be re-printed, but there are sufficient funds on hand to take care of the cost of the Publication.

At the present moment it is anticipated that the efforts of this Committee for the coming year will be concentrated in the preparation of additional materials to continue the Grand Lodge's Program on Masonic Education. A small sum, $400.00, has been placed in this budget to take care of minor needs of the Committee for its preparation of smaller publications.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT L. PUGH, P.G.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON GRAND LODGE LIBRARY

(Docket No. 18)

The following report of the Special Committee on Grand Lodge Library was received and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

This Committee regrets very much to report that during the year 1970 very little headway has been made on the establishment of the Grand Lodge Library, or on the enlargement, volume-wise, of the Library that we already possess. One or two books have been donated and, of course, we have received copies of the proceedings of all of the other Grand Lodges in the United States, but these are relatively insignificant in comparison to the need that actually exists for a Grand Lodge Library that will be serviceable to the brethren throughout the State of North Carolina.

Nevertheless, even though we have made very little headway during the preceding year, we should not let this serve as a deterrent in our efforts, nor should it discourage us for the future. The need for a Grand Lodge Library continues to increase day by day and the Masons in North Carolina should continue to exert every effort possible to the end that we can have a library of which we will be proud.

It is interesting to note that the Grand Secretary's Office receives a number of inquiries during the year from the Lodges asking for various Masonic bibliographies and for the names of publishing houses that print Masonic literature. This indicates that if North Carolina had a Grand Lodge Library worthy of the name, it would be utilized by a number of our Lodges.

There are many interesting volumes on Masonry that are lying around in various homes throughout the State and if our brethren would only continue to bear in mind the need of assisting in the establishment of a Grand Lodge Library, it is believed surely that some fruitful results would be obtained in the near future. Most assuredly, it is an effort that needs to be emphasized more and more.

Respectfully submitted,
ROBERT L. PUGH P.G.M., Chairman

REPORT OF THE GRAND MASTER

(DOCKET NO. 20)

M. W. Maurice E. Walsh, Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, delivered the following report, which was referred to the Board of General Purposes. (See Page 104, Docket No. 21 of these Proceedings for the distribution of this report.)

To The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:
BRETHREN:

It is a privilege and pleasure to welcome each delegate and member of this Grand Lodge to the One Hundred Eighty Fourth Annual Communication. We hope you will enter into the business of the session, as your brethren back home are expecting you to represent them in a capable manner. In order to do this, you must take an active part in our deliberations during the next two days. This is your Grand Lodge, so please feel welcome and let your voice be heard.

We extend a hearty welcome to our distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions. I have visited, or our Representatives have visited, many of your jurisdictions. We were royally treated. We hope we can reciprocate in a small way. You honor us with your presence.

Also, we extend our sincere and fraternal greetings to the leaders of all Masonic and Masonic related Bodies in North Carolina. We are most grateful for your presence and for the fine spirit of "Unity" which has prevailed between your respective Bodies and the Grand Lodge.

NECROLOGY

We are always saddened by the loss of our Masonic Brethren. Many throughout our jurisdiction have departed this life. This Grand Lodge suffered a great loss when M. W. William J. Bundy, Past Grand Master, of Greenville, N. C., passed away June 27, 1970. I was proud to call him "My friend and Brother." We miss him greatly in the work of our Grand Lodge. The Committee on Necrology will make an appropriate and fitting report at the proper time.

GRAND MASTER'S PROGRAM

My program for the year consisted of the following, part of which was the continuation of the programs of my worthy predecessors, but with renewed emphasis on them:

Support of Oxford Orphanage, The Masonic and Eastern Star Home, The Order of DeMolay for Boys, The Order of Rainbow for Girls, The Celebration of St. John's Days, The Support of Public Schools, Patriotism—rededicate our lives to God and Country, and the most important part of our program—MASONIC EDUCATION.

I have had the honor and privilege for several years to serve on the official boards of our institutions and during my term as Grand Master. Brethren we have two of the finest, if not the finest, institutions in North America—Oxford Orphanage and The Masonic and Eastern Star Home. We are providing excellent and loving care for 320 children that come from all over North Carolina. We are providing expert and loving care for 140 of our older Brethren and Sisters. In our building programs we have completed another cottage at Oxford Orphanage for our children and another will soon be under construction. We have just opened the Robert N. Bass, Jr., Care Center at the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. Last year (1970) my Brethren, you gave of your own free will and accord, without any assessment, over $675,000.00 to these two magnificent institutions. Brethren, you continue to amaze me with your generosity. By your generosity you have made it possible for our two dedicated Superintendents, Brothers Leon Gray and Troy Robbins and their staffs to provide much better care and service for our guests. Too much cannot be said in the way of praise for these two dedicated Masons and their very capable staffs. Indeed, we owe them more than I can express here in words.

There cannot be too much praise and admiration for the Officers and Members of the Order of the Eastern Star for their continued support and service to the Home and I herewith extend to them our sincere thanks.

Our Youth Orders: I have appointed a committee to contact each Masonic and Masonic related Body with the purpose in mind to set up a Board of Directors which will be made up from all these Masonic Bodies. After its establishment we can work toward our goal of having our DeMolay Boys operating under a Budget System which will eventually bring about a strong foundation. This should provide leadership and finances to do the job that needs to be done for this fine youth organization. By the same token, I hope that the Order of the Eastern Star will begin setting up the mechanics for the Rainbow Girls. Remember our youth is where we deposit our most precious treasures—the hard won wisdom, the dream for a better world. Our youth can guard and protect these, and perhaps invest them wisely and win a profit—a profit greater than we have ever dreamed. Our youth will inherit the world. All our work will be judged by them. Tomorrow they will earn your seat in Congress, own your company, and run your town. The future, whether we agree or not, is theirs. Perhaps they deserve a little more of our attention.

The celebration of St. John's Days: Masonry is not a religion but we cannot deny that it is religious. It is a Brotherhood of Man and according to our obligations we owe our allegiance to God and our strongest support to the Church of our choice. Let us increase our participation in this program.

The continued support of Public Schools: Let us remember, Brethren, only in a free and democratic nation have public schools been allowed to thrive and grow. Therefore we must continue to work for and support them.

Patriotism: Let us rededicate our lives to God and country.

Respect for Law and Order: Support our elected officials at all levels of government. We can and must do this by speaking out on the vital issues of the day. May our efforts be as great as our forefathers. If they are, then we are performing as men and as Masons.

MASONIC EDUCATION

On April 22, 1970 your Grand Lodge adopted a Masonic Education Program. This education program was designed to eventually reach every Mason in North Carolina. The program called for a new type of officer, one who was designated as the District Education Chairman or now usually referred to by the initials D.E.C.

In the implementation of the program we found it necessary to fully utilize the organizational structure and personnel of the Grand Lodge, with one objective in mind, to achieve a long range educational program that would reach every lodge in our grand jurisdiction. This meant that all Grand Lodge Officers, Past Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, and District Education Chairmen were fully utilized. These dedicated brethren conducted Area and District Workshops for the benefit of all lodge officers in our jurisdiction.

The following Grand Lodge Officers served as ex-officio members of the Education Committee: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Senior Grand Warden, and Junior Grand Warden. The following committee members were appointed with staggered term of office: M. W. Robert L. Pugh, Chairman, W. Brother C. Wallace Jackson, Vice-Chairman, W. Brother A. D. Leon Gray, W. Brother Troy G. Robbins, M. W. Wm. A. Hooks, and W. Brother Nelson B. Banks. Brethren this committee did an outstanding piece of work for this Grand Jurisdiction. They have implemented an Education Program for us, you and me, that will continue to grow and expand. It is a program of continuity that will bear fruit from now on.

To the chairman of this committee, M. W. Robert L. Pugh, for the competency, fervency, and zeal with which he prepared, promoted, and put on these education programs all over this grand jurisdiction, we owe a debt of gratitude that cannot be expressed in words. But to you Most Worshipful Sir, we say "thank you" from the bottom of our hearts.

I honestly feel that this program has been firmly planted and profitably implemented in the Masonic lodges of this grand jurisdiction.

UNITY

In early September 1970 our program of Masonic Education had progressed to the point that it was in the hands of the brethren on the local level. The reports received from its progress were so encouraging that this led us to believe that we should develop a program that would create a greater feeling of interdependence among all Masonic and Masonic allied organizations. This should be an all-inclusive program on UNITY. This would be a solidifying force in all our Masonic activities, thereby stimulating more interest and better attendance in our Masonic organizations. By presenting a united front we can make Masonry recognized, not only by Masons themselves, but also by the non-Masonic public as a tremendous force for good.

We requested our Education Committee which was chaired by M. W. Robert L. Pugh to devise a program on the topic of Unity to be held in Raleigh, N. C., at the Masonic Temple, January 16, 1971. As usual M. W. Brother Pugh did an outstanding job. The program began at 2:30 P.M. with various Blue Lodge, Scottish Rite, York Rite, Shrine and DeMolay officials leading discussions on topics relating to our Masonic image, growing out of a more unified approach to the challenge confronting us. The program was concluded with a 6:00 dinner, followed by an inspirational address by Ill. and M. W. Henry C. Clausen, 33°, Sovereign Grand Commander, The Supreme Council, A. and A. S. R., Southern Jurisdiction. This event was truly the climax of my year as your Grand Master.

OUT-OF-STATE VISITATIONS

We were honored to receive and accept the following invitations to visit other Grand Jurisdictions: Maine, Ontario, Delaware, Alabama and Virginia. M. W. Brother Charles C. Ricker accompanied me to the Ontario, Canada meeting. M. W. James W. Brewer, Grand Treasurer attended the Delaware meeting.

Official visitations were made in Florida and Tennessee by M. W. Charles C. Ricker, P.G.M.; M. W. William A. Hooks, P.G.M., to Georgia; M. W. Arnold J. Koonce, P.G.M. to Kentucky; M. W. Robert N. Bass, Jr., P.G.M., to Illionis; M. W. Charles A. Harris, P.G.M., Grand Secretary, to West Virginia; R. W. Nathaniel C. Dean to Pennsylvania, and W. Bro. Hiram J. Casebolt to Pennsylvania for the committee meeting on "76" Bi-Centennial.

We attended the Southeastern Masonic Conference in New Orleans, Louisiana. We were accompanied to this Conference by R. W. William W. Mims, Jr., D.G.M.; R. W. Berl M. Kahn, S.G.W.; R. W. Nathaniel C. Dean, J.G.W.; W. Bro. Robert P. Dudley, Assistant to the Grand Secretary; M. W. William A. Hooks, P.G.M.; M. W. James W. Brewer, P.G.M., Grand Treasurer; M. W. Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M., Chaplain of the Conference, and M. W. Harvey W. Smith, P.G.M.

I was honored by being asked to address the Southeastern Shrine Association at their mid-year conference at Chattanooga, Tennessee, on February 5-6, 1971. I was accompanied to this meeting by W. Bro. Ralph O. Hood, Past Potentate, Oasis Temple and First Vice President of SESA; W. Bro. Julian Helms, Recorder; W. Bro. Walter J. Black, Chief Rabban, and David J. Smith, Assistant Rabban of Oasis Temple. This meeting represented 31 Shrine Temples and nine Grand Jurisdictions. I addressed this outstanding group of Masonic leaders on Masonic Education and Unity.

I highly recommend the continuation of these out-of-state visitations. It is most beneficial to your Grand Officers and this Grand Jurisdiction to exchange fraternal visitations and ideas with other Grand Jurisdictions, in fact the program should be enlarged.

AREA AND DISTRICT CONFERENCES

We held Area Conferences in four areas of the State for the specific purpose of outlining and informing our District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, and District Education Chairmen our plans on implementing the Grand Lodge's new Education Program. It was most gratifying to observe the enthusiasm with which our very capable District Grand Lodge officers received and accepted this program.

We next held four District Conferences in the Eastern Northern, Southern, and Western areas of the state. Each conference involved the lodges and their officers of three or four Masonic Districts. Again, it was most gratifying to observe the enthusiasm, the willingness, and the cooperative attitude with which these Brethren received and accepted this new program, in fact, they seemed hungry for a program of this type.

Again, I express my sincere appreciation to our Grand Lodge Line Officers who are ex-officio members and to the complete Masonic Education Committee chaired by M. W. Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M., for their splendid cooperation and valuable assistance in putting this program before the brethren. Thanks for a job well done. This Grand Jurisdiction shall always be grateful to all of you.

R. W. Bro. William W. Mims, Jr., Deputy Grand Master has already completed his program and plans for the New Year. He is certainly carrying forward the Education program as first outlined to the end that it would be a program of continuity—a program that could be taken from or added to—so let's all resolve to assist him with all the zeal and ability we can muster. I am looking forward to real progress under his very capable leadership.

OTHER IN-STATE VISITATIONS

It is not possible for me to list all the visits and additional meetings which I have attended within our own State during my year, however all of them have been listed in The North Carolina Mason under the Grand Master's Travelogue. If you read the issues in which it was published, I am sure that you noted that I had two free weekends during my year, namely, the Fourth of July and Christmas. However I am most grateful that I was blessed with the strength and stamina to carry on the arduous duties that go with this high office. I enjoyed every minute of this year. I appreciate the many invitations, those accepted and declined, for Lodge Anniversaries, Awards Presentations, Ladies Night Programs, and Installation Programs. I am most grateful for the courtesies extended me by the Scottish and York Rite Bodies, Sudan and Oasis Shrine Temples,

The Order of The Eastern Star, The Order of Rainbow Girls, and The Order of DeMolay. Many, many, thanks for the gracious manner in which I was received at those meetings which I was able to attend. I shall always be grateful for the way and manner each of you accepted our UNITY Program. Without your assistance and cooperation it would not have become a reality. Please, as the years go by, watch this program thrive and grow. With your strength and support it will make a much stronger jurisdiction.

DISTRICT GRAND LODGE OFFICERS

Without reservation, I can freely state that any success
I may have had during this year as your Grand Master has depended a great deal on the excellent cooperation and assistance from our District Officers: i.e., District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, and District Education Chairmen. Every time I needed assistance throughout the State I would call upon one of these fine dedicated Masons and each time they responded promptly and efficiently. To each of you, my Brethren, my heartfelt thanks and appreciation for a job well done. The District Grand Lodge Officers expenses will be paid by the Grand Lodge for their attendance this year.

DISPENSATIONS GRANTED

At the time I was compiling this report I had issued 34 dispensations: one to James B. Green Lodge No. 735 to proceed with the construction of a building in accordance with the plans submitted for approval, and which plans had been returned to the Lodge by the Grand Secretary's office.

Two for permission to rebalot on petitions.

Two for permission to hold meetings without the charter until the Grand Secretary's office could have said charters refurbished.

Three for permission to hold meetings without the charter until the Grand Secretary's office could have said charters laminated.

Four to hold meetings in places other than the regular meeting places.

Four to exchange visits with Lodges in other Grand Jurisdictions.

Eighteen for permission to fill vacancies in office.

LODGES CONSTITUTED

I had the honor and pleasure of constituting the following lodges that had been working under dispensations granted by M.'W.'Brother William A. Hooks.

Shelby Lodge No. 744, Shelby, N. C., on April 28, 1970.

Vandora Lodge No. 745, Garner, N. C., on April 29, 1970.

P. P. Turner Lodge No. 746, Greensboro, N. C., on April 30, 1970.

LODGES INSTITUTED

It was a real honor and a personal pleasure to grant a dispensation to the following new lodge and designate it to be instituted on the date shown:

Ocracoke Lodge U.D., at Ocracoke, on Dec. 19, 1970.

For years the Masons of Ocracoke attended lodge at Buxton, N. C., by taking the ferry to Hatteras, spending the night there after the meeting, and returning home the next day. Thirty-seven brethren on Ocracoke persisted until their Masonic problem was solved. These brethren had the wise counsel and assistance of M.'W.'Brother Robert N. Bass, Jr., P.G.M., for several weeks, then the following M.'W.'P.G.M.s came in to assist: Robert L. Pugh, James W. Brewer and A. A. Kafer, Jr. All of these Past Grand Masters were ably assisted by W.'Bro. Robert P. Dudley, Assistant to the Grand Secretary and M.'W.'Charles A. Harris, P.G.M., Grand Secretary. Also, a vote of thanks and appreciation goes to Past Grand Lecturer, Charles T. Potter, C. W. Guptill and Clarence E. Koonce, Past Masters of Berne Lodge No. 724, New Bern, N. C.

I designated M.'W.'A. A. Kafer, Jr., P.G.M., to institute Ocracoke Lodge U.D. on Dec. 19, 1970. The dream of many years for these dedicated Masons had finally become a reality.

PHYSICAL DISABILITY

Several years ago this Grand Lodge took action to amend The CODE (see Proceedings, 1964) by eliminating those regulations which prohibited the reception of a petition from one whose physical defect prevented him from conforming literally to the requirements of the Three Degrees, and in turn adding a new regulation placing the responsibility for the approval or disapproval of these petitions directly upon the Grand Master. Many petitions were received during the year. I am happy to state that all but two were approved. After all, don't we consider the "internal and not the external" qualifications of a man when he makes application for membership in our great Fraternity? Disapprovals were based upon regulation 74-01(11) which states, "Have no physical disability which would prevent him from earning a livelihood or would make him a burden or charge upon the Craft."

CONFERENCE OF GRAND MASTERS OF MASONS IN NORTH AMERICA

This Conference is made up of members of all the Grand Lodges of North America and primarily designed for the purpose of meeting together, exchanging ideas, and promoting fraternal friendship among the various Grand Jurisdictions represented. I was privileged to attend this Conference in Washington, D. C., on February 20-24, 1971. Your Grand Lodge was capably represented by a fine representation composed of R. W. Brothers William W. Mims, Jr.; Berl M. Kahn, Nathaniel C. Dean; M. W. Brothers Charles A. Harris, James W. Brewer, Charles C. Ricker, Sam A. Hennis, Jr., James G. Johnston, Harvey W. Smith, Robert N. Bass, Jr., Alfred A. Kafer, Jr.; W. Brothers Robert P. Dudley, William F. Owen, Jr., and Herbert B. Ruffin. Unfortunately three of our Past Grand Masters, M. W. W. Edward Burrier, Robert L. Pugh and William A. Hooks could not be with us due to illness. Needless to say these distinguished Brethren were missed by the Conference and our Delegation. M. W. Brother Hooks was elected Chairman of the Conference last year and we are sorry that he had to forgo presiding at the opening of the Conference this year. We were happy to have our wives accompany us.

At the Grand Master's Banquet we were honored to have most of our Congressmen and Senator Ervin with us. Senator Jordan who is always present could not be with us due to illness. I am real happy to report that North Carolina had the largest Congressional Delegation present for the banquet. In fact, no other Grand Jurisdiction came close to having the representation that we had.

M. W. Samuel W. McIntosh, P.G.M., District of Columbia and Executive Secretary of the Conference, resigned from his duties after thirteen years at the helm. Needless to say he will be missed but the Conference elected a very capable Past Grand Master of Maryland, M. W. Brother William Stansbury, Jr., to replace him. Those of us who are acquainted with Bill Stansbury know that the Conference is in capable hands, he will and can give expert guidance and counsel for many years to come.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON MASONIC NATIONAL MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION AND THE MASONIC SERVICE
ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES

The North Carolina Delegation attended these meetings while in Washington, D. C. Our representative, M. W. Brother Robert L. Pugh was not present due to illness but he was capably represented by M. W. Brother A. A. Kafer, Jr. A complete report will be given elsewhere in the proceedings.

Your Grand Master was honored by being elected to serve during the year 1971 on "The Educational and Publication" Committee.

GRAND LODGE OFFICE

The everyday accomplishments of my tenure of office could not have been realized without the friendship, guidance, and valuable assistance of our very capable Grand Secretary, M. W. Brother Charles A. Harris, his valuable assistant, Robert P. Dudley and the members of their staff. They have made my job so much easier as they have been right by me when I needed them.

Brethren I am happy to report to you that your Grand Lodge office is in very efficient and capable hands.

The assistance and guidance of our very capable Grand Treasurer, M. W. James W. Brewer, P.G.M., has been a strong moral booster to me. He was always at hand when I needed him.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I recommend that we continue our usual appropriations for: the Oxford Orphanage, the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Masonic Charity, The Masonic Service Association, The Masonic Relief Association, The George Washington

Masonic National Memorial Association, The Grand Master's Conference, The Grand Secretaries' Conference, The Southeastern Masonic Conference, The Order of Rainbow Girls.

There has been appointed a "Special Committee" to consider the needs and budget requirements of the Order of DeMolay, however I recommend an appropriation for them until the committee has had time to function and come up with recommendations. This will be done after they have contacted all Masonic and Masonic related Bodies.

I recommend that the Masonic Education Committee study ways and means by which the theme of "UNITY" can be incorporated and constantly used in our Educational Program. From the comments received regarding our "Unity" meeting on January 16, 1971, I firmly believe the Brethren desire this program be strengthened and continued.

At the meeting of the Masonic Service Association of the United States this past February, the matter of finances was brought up relative to the producing of a film on the history of Masonry. The film to be produced by professionals, the cost of which would be about 1½c per member of each Grand Jurisdiction. The matter was brought before the Education and Publication Committee of which your Grand Master is a member. This committee was asked to submit a recommendation as to how the financing of this project could be handled. The Committee recommended that the cost be borne by the member Grand Lodges which would be about 1½c per member. I recommend that this Grand Lodge appropriate the amount of 1½c per member toward the cost of this worthy project. Cost is based on membership 12-31-70.

I recommend that this Grand Jurisdiction participate in the 200th Anniversary Celebration of the founding of the United States in 1776. We have been honored by having our own M. W. Robert L. Pugh, P.G.M., elected as one of the seven permanent members of the National Committee. Therefore I recommend that his expenses be paid in connection with the duties involved on this committee.

HONORARY TITLE OF PAST DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

I recommend that this Grand Lodge grant the honorary title of Past District Deputy Grand Master to the following brethren, each of whom is eligible and qualified therefor in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 12-05 of THE CODE:

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

OPINIONS AND ORDERS

I have found it necessary to issue one Unofficial Opinion, four Official Opinions, and six Orders covering violations during the year.

Unofficial Opinion

Definitely, what follows is not critical of THE CODE of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, however, it has been my feeling and those of a great many with whom I have been in communication that some of these regulations are not all black or white, there being definite hues of gray.

The Code states that membership in the Craft is not to be used to solicit votes. This would make the political advertisement in The Carteret County News-Times one not in keeping with THE CODE. However, based on my careful investigation through others, as well as my confidence in you and your complete and comprehensive explanation of January 5, wherein you advise that you were not familiar with that portion of THE CODE and that in any event it will not recur, I am happy that this matter can be closed out so promptly.

Together with so many of my Brethren, I personally am very much interested as to whether a man running for public office is a Mason. Also, I believe that it is to the advantage of our city, our county, our state and our Republic, that Masons, not as Masons, but with Masonic principles, serve as civic servants. I am confident, after checking through the matter, that what appeared in your ad was strictly a matter of your being proud of the fact, as we are, that you are a Master Mason.

Official Opinion No. 1

Members of Greensboro Lodge No. 76, which lodge is celebrating the 150th Anniversary of its existance in March, asked permission to issue a token which they suggested calling a "Masonic Buck" as a memento of the occasion.

The idea of a token to mark a special event is good, I believe, provided the token is appropriate to Masonic decorum. It is true that in the Shrine we have a lot of fun. But in the Rites and in our basic Blue Lodge we have less frivolity, but we still have with dignity a strong fellowship and genuinely enjoy the pleasures of being with each other. For publicity, we count on splendidly conducted funeral services, the laying of cornerstones, well done dedications, interesting open installations, etc.

Now as to the matter of a token, this should be along that same line. I just cannot become enamored with the thought of a trivial or trifling bit of nothing, so to speak. If we reflect, we must agree that a "wooden nickel" or a "Masonic Buck" are phony items, and Freemasonry is not phony. Tokens, when well prepared and worthy, are great things.

I did not deny the brethren of Greensboro Lodge No. 76 the privilege of issuing a token commemorating their 150th Anniversary, but I did ask them to think along the above lines, and be sure the token would be dignified and something that will find favor in the eyes of the general public, and that will improve, if possible, the image of our beloved Fraternity.

Official Opinion No. 2

The Grand Secretary notified me under date of January 11, 1971 that the Secretary of Memorial Lodge No. 696 had advised him that he had received a chain letter from one of the members of his lodge now residing in Rocky Mount. I asked the Grand Secretary to call attention to the brethren in our Grand Jurisdiction, through the columns of The North Carolina Mason, to Regulation 60-12 of THE CODE which makes it a Masonic offense to be a party to the issuing or to the circulating of such a letter.

In the February, 1971 issue of our paper the Grand Secretary quoted an opinion by Grand Master Robert L. Pugh in 1954, reading as follows:

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

"I have never been able to understand why any intelligent person would place any credence in any benefit accruing to him through participation in the chain letter nuisance. To think that Master Masons should be guilty of such a practice was almost inconceivable, and yet I found that in large numbers they shared in perpetuating this evil. It may be that we shall never rid ourselves completely of this scourge, yet at the same time, it is incumbent upon us that we utilize every opportunity that presents itself to stamp out this evil practice."

I am asking the Masters of our lodges to reprimand those members of their respective lodges whose names have appeared or will appear on chain letters, and I sincerely hope they will caution their members again and again about this evil practice.

Official Opinion No. 3

The Secretary of Goldsboro Lodge No. 634 received a letter from one of their members stationed in Thailand in which he was soliciting financial help from his home lodge "to aid a juvenile home for minor criminal acts to purchase a printing press for the home."

I advised this Secretary to advise their member that Regulation 95-08 of THE CODE of our Grand Lodge provides that "Appeals for aid are by Masonic usage confined to the assistance of a needy worthy brother, his widow and orphans."

Official Opinion No. 4

The Grand Secretary called to my attention the case of Brother Roger Thomas Kirk, who was a member of Semper Fidelis Lodge No. 680, and upon moving to Albany, Georgia in 1956, Brother Kirk attempted to transfer to a lodge in that city. He was elected to membership in the Georgia lodge subject to the receipt of a demit from Semper Fidelis Lodge No. 680.

The demit was granted on December 12, 1956 and sent to our Grand Secretary's office for certification and transmittal to Georgia, but it became buried in this office and was never forwarded to Georgia.

Brother Kirk returned to Jacksonville in 1957 and, thinking that Semper Fidelis Lodge No. 680 had declined to grant the demit, made inquiry as to his status in the lodge, and was told that the demit had been granted and forwarded to our Grand Secretary. Following an exchange of letters between Brother Richard C. Paschall, who was then the Secretary of Semper Fidelis Lodge No. 680, and the late Brother McIver, it was suggested that Brother Kirk should apply for affiliation with his old lodge which he did. He was elected to membership on January 8, 1958.

Since this was not the fault of Brother Kirk nor of Semper Fidelis Lodge No. 680, I hereby ORDER the Grand Secretary to issue a 25-Year Service Award for Brother Kirk on April 13, 1971, or as soon thereafter as the lodge wishes to make this presentation, under the authority granted to me as Grand Master in Regulation 88-05 of THE CODE.

Order No. 1

It has come to my attention that Bayboro Lodge No. 331 held a stated communication on Thursday, April 23, 1970, which was not the date of the stated communication of that lodge, and rejected a petitioner for the degrees at the communication.

If you will refer to page 144 of the Proceedings for 1969, about half-way down the page, you will see that the proposed amendment to Regulation 21-01 of THE CODE was referred to the Code Commission for further study and action at the Annual Communication in 1970. You will also recall that further action on this proposed amendment was rejected last week on motion of Brother Kafer.

The stated communication of your lodge held on April 23, 1970, was, therefore, ILLEGAL, and you will have to start over again and ballot on the petition of the rejected petitioner, but you cannot do this until your stated communication on May 19, 1970 because you must comply with Regulation 78-01 and notify all members of the lodge at least ten days in advance of that meeting.

This Order should be read to the lodge at your next stated communication, and recorded in the minutes of your lodge for that communication, and a marginal note made on the minutes of the stated communication at which the illegal ballot was taken (April 23, 1970), referring to this Order and the date it is recorded in the minutes.

Order No. 2

I found it necessary to reprimand Louisburg Lodge No. 413 for allowing a Steward to be installed who had not passed a proficiency examination on the catechism of the Third Degree, which was in violation of Regulation 80-08 of THE CODE.

I instructed the Master of this lodge to declare the office vacant until such time as the appointed Officer has complied with the above-mentioned regulation.

Order No. 3

With reference to the report received by the Grand Secretary's office from the District Deputy Grand Master of the 6th Masonic District, in which he advised that the name of a candidate for initiation in Rainbow Lodge No. 479 was published in a newspaper notice of the meeting to be held on May 11, 1970, which is in violation of Regulation 49-03 (6) of THE CODE, I wish to issue the following ORDER:

1. The candidate is not at fault, of course, and the degree cannot be taken from him.

2. It is therefore ORDERED, that the Master of Rainbow Lodge No. 479 be severely reprimanded for allowing this violation to take place.

3. And further, that this ORDER shall be read in the lodge at the first stated communication following its receipt and that it shall be made a part of the minutes of that meeting, so that the members may refer to it in the future in order to prevent subsequent violations of this nature.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

Order No. 4

It has been brought to my attention by the Grand Secretary that Brother James Lloyd Pate who has applied for affiliation with your lodge from St. Alban's Lodge No. 114 was elected to membership in your lodge on November 2, 1970, without the application having been duly certified by the office of the Grand Secretary.

It is my opinion that the ballot having been taken before the application was certified by the Grand Secretary, it is illegal and void under the clear and positive language of Regulation 76-01: 76-01(1), and 83-15.

Since the Grand Master is authorized to order another ballot, a dispensation is hereby granted to Fairmont Lodge No. 528 to ballot again on the Application for Affiliation of Brother James Lloyd Pate at its stated communication of December 7, 1970.

The records in the office of the Grand Secretary and of your lodge shall be made to conform to this opinion and the result of the rebalot.

If the applicant is rejected his membership shall be the same as it was before your lodge took any action thereon.

Order No. 5

It has been brought to my attention by the Grand Secretary that a candidate was rejected by Tabor Lodge No. 563 on November 10, 1970, which was less than twenty-eight days from the date his petition was read on October 27, 1970.

The ballot taken on November 10, 1970 was clearly illegal under the positive language of Regulation 76-01 of THE CODE and is, therefore, NULL and VOID.

Since the Grand Master is authorized to order another ballot, a dispensation is hereby granted to Tabor Lodge No. 563 to ballot again on the petition for the degrees of this candidate at its stated communication to be held on December 22, 1970, provided that the membership of the lodge is given proper notice in advance of the date of the rebalot, as provided in Regulation 78-01.

This ORDER shall be read to the lodge at the next stated communication, recorded in the minutes of the lodge for that communication, and a marginal notation made on the minutes of the stated communication at which the illegal ballot was taken (November 10, 1970), referring to this ORDER and the date it is recorded in the minutes.

Order No. 6

I have examined the file in the matter of Mr. Wallace Alfred Boudrow who was elected to receive the degrees in Masonry in New River Lodge No. 736 before the petition was certified by the Grand Secretary.

According to facts presented, the petition was read at a stated communication held on August 13, 1970, and the petitioner was elected on September 10, 1970 without the petition having been certified by the Grand Secretary. This ballot was, therefore, ILLEGAL.

In order to fully comply with Regulations 73-13 and 76-01 of THE CODE, it is ordered that the Grand Secretary make the necessary record of the subject petition and place thereon his Certificate, with a proper notation on his Certificate to explain the delay in making it. Upon receipt of the properly certified petition, it shall be submitted to the secret ballot at the stated communication of New River Lodge No. 736 to be held on October 8, 1970 in the same manner as if no previous ballot had been taken thereon.

This order shall be read to the lodge at the first stated communication after its receipt, entered on the minutes of that communication, and a proper notation made on the margin of the minutes of New River Lodge No. 736 for the stated communication at which the illegal ballot was taken (September 10, 1970) referring to this order and the date it was recorded in the minutes.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT

Recently, two Lodges, sharing concurrent jurisdiction, informally felt out each other relative to an increase in the initiatory fee. Some feeling of other than a good Masonic nature has existed between these Lodges for sometime and probably, in consequence, when the matter came to vote, there was a disagreement between the two Lodges. Your Grand Master arranged for a Past Grand Master to sit in with the Masters and Wardens of the respective Lodges, had a word of prayer with them, and I am happy to advise you that the two Lodges are now completely in accord, that the fee adjustment has been made, and the Lodges are in total harmony, much the richer for the experience.

In one of our larger cities, a legitimate but, what has by the passage of time become, an archaic charter, has resulted in the management of the main Masonic Temple coming under the control of a self-perpetuating board. This in itself has not been harmful due to the quality of the successory trustees, but has nevertheless become contrary to Masonic usage. In view of the general basis that to the membership belongs the control of all Masonic properties control necessarily means the right to name successors this matter was discussed with several learned and distinguished Masons, who while quite in agreement as to the quality as well as legality of the current trustees, nevertheless, did preclude the right of the lodges to pick the successory trustees. After securing the opinions of three of our outstanding legalities, I propounded the questions to the present trustees that basic Masonic procedure should be pursued. Accordingly, a most harmonious meeting was held with the present trustees under the old system, together with the Masters and Wardens of the six tenant lodges, the result being that the legislature has now passed enabling legislation to accomplish the much overdue action. In the meantime, each of the lodges has elected three trustees for Staggered 1, 2 and 3 year terms so that this is now a fait accompli.

Some time ago, a group of Masons who are members of other Masonic Lodges, but who were gathered together as a result of their business activities, came up with the novel but reprehensible idea of furnishing each candidate in their group with a penny. As a matter of fact, one candidate remarked that he had been furnished with as many as eight pennies. It is not necessary to detail here the buffoonery, burlesque and ridiculosity involved. This matter was thoroughly investigated and I am happy to tell you that we now have apologies from the Lodge, from the Masters of two Lodges (another Master being involved) and agreement from the Lodge apologizing to the Grand Master and assuring him there will be no recurrence. I regret that I could not give you a completely perfect answer on this at this time, but hope by the preparation of these proceedings that such can be done, one of the out-of state members having written your Grand Master that such action established real rapport with the candidate and suggesting that your Grand Master's Masonry was of the head and of books, rather than of the heart. This potential matter of contemptuous conduct is being pursued and it is hoped that a more complete and definite answer will be given you at the time of this report. I am happy to tell you that all of the others involved have been chastened, have apologized, the Lodge has apologized, and the Lodge has sufficiently notified the Grand Master there will never be a repetition. Never, I hope, will there be in this Grand Lodge of our ancient Rites that have come down to us from the remote and presented in a sanctum sanctorum will ever be used again for circus activities, rather than to build cathedrals in the hearts of men.

An epilogue on which there might be time to thoroughly investigate could well conclude with the whole "Eno Incident" being the result of the out-of-state takeover by a group of sojourners from various climes. For our purpose, and the fact satisfactory conclusion has been achieved the matter will be concluded with a stern note of warning issued to each of the sojourners involved.

There was one flagrant case that could not be so ended. A sojourner who claims to have been raised in Michigan, at sometime demitted to Kentucky and who, though sojourning in North Carolina for six years, had never put in attendance at a North Carolina lodge, nevertheless, seems to have been the leader, the most misguided and one of the most arrogant, dues-carrying Masons we have ever met. As a matter of fact there may be some question relative to his being properly initiated, passed and raised. In the presence of M. W. Grand Master Walsh, to whom he wrote a most discourteous, undignified, ignorant and contemptuous letter, to Worshipful Brother Hatch (former Judge of the Superior Court of Wake County), to Worshipful Brother Emery Denny (Past Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina), and to Most Worshipful Brothers Charles A. Harris and W. Edward Burrier, Faust displayed a total lack of Masonic knowledge and behaviorism or even that of just plain common sense.

It was the unanimous recommendation of the group that the Grand Master lift his cards, declare him totally without standing as a Mason in North Carolina and his cards returned with proper explanation to the Grand Master of Kentucky.

This entire episode should serve as a warning to every lodge in North Carolina to make certain that North Carolina Masonry prevails in each subordinate lodge and to definitely be on guard at all times from possible "takeover" by well-meaning but poorly informed sojourners.

EXCHANGE OF VISITATIONS

On February 10, 1971 my long-time personal friend, co-worker, and fraternal brother, Most Worshipful Charles F. Shuler was elected and installed Grand Master of Virginia. Charlie and I had discussed the possibility of an exchange of visits between our Grand Jurisdictions which would renew the custom began in 1957 by Grand Masters Charles A. Harris of North Carolina and Archer B. Gay of Virginia. Incidentally, both of these Distinguished Past Grand Masters are now Grand Secretaries of their respective Grand Jurisdictions.

This exchange of visitations became a reality between these Grand Jurisdictions at the dates, times, and places listed below:

Saturday, March 6, 1971, Jefferson Penn Lodge No. 384, Reidsville, N. C., as host. Dinner was served in the Temple of Jefferson Penn Lodge at 6:00 P.M. with the meeting getting underway promptly at 7:30 P.M.

At this meeting M. W. Charles F. Shuler delivered an inspiring address on enthusiasm and membership in Masonry. I was signally honored by M. W. Bro. Shuler and the Grand Lodge of Virginia when he presented to me the "John Blair Award". This was one time when your Grand Master was in a position that he did not have words to adequately express himself. Needless to say, being human, I appreciate this magnificent award more than words can express. I accepted it with a very humble and grateful heart. May my future life and actions merit the esteem in which the good Brethren have placed me.

Saturday, March 20, 1971, Roman Eagle Lodge No. 122, Danville, Virginia, as host. Dinner was served in the Temple at 6:00 P.M. with the meeting getting under way promptly at 7:30 P.M.

At this meeting I was privileged to address a large group of Brethren from both Virginia and North Carolina on the subject of "Christianity and Masonry". I was most appreciative of the very close attention that the Brethren gave my address.

I heartily recommend that joint endeavors such as these exchanges of visits be continued as they are very enlightening and productive for creating good fellowship and fraternal friendship between our Grand Jurisdictions.

STATE OF THE CRAFT

Freemasonry in North Carolina continues to experience a sizeable gain, both in quantity and quality. Numerically, we had a gain, as of this writing, of 659 during this year which brought our membership, as of December 31, 1970 to 68,689. We have had a net gain in membership for 32 consecutive years. This same trend is reflected in all of our appendant bodies. In my visits and contacts with the lodges and other Masonic related Bodies throughout the State, there is real strong evidence and desire to continue our Masonic Education and Unity Programs. They feel as I do, that this will create a more beautiful and realistic image of our glorious fraternity.

Peace and harmony continue to exist throughout our Grand Jurisdiction with, perhaps, a few isolated cases where small disputes and misunderstandings occur but through the application of the principles by which we are taught, these generally disappear quickly. The overwhelming majority of the Brethren truly conduct themselves as men and as Masons.

APPRECIATIONS

Words truly are inadequate to express to you, my Brethren, for selecting me to lead you for the past year. Very little could have been accomplished during my term as Grand Master had it not been for your assistance, cooperation and guidance. Thanks, Brethren, for your help in making this a great year for Masonry in North Carolina.

To Brothers William W. Mims, Jr., Berl M. Kahn, Nathaniel C. Dean, Charles A. Harris and James W. Brewer for their excellent support. No Grand Master has ever had finer support from the elective Line Officers than I have had given me by these distinguished Brethren. Also, for the very fine support from the other Grand Lodge Officers, the Past Grand Masters, the District Deputy Grand Masters, District Deputy Grand Lecturers, the District Education Chairmen, the members of the many Boards and Committees, and the numerous other Brethren who have given me such capable and generous support.

To M. W. Brother Charles C. Ricker, again, many, many thanks for appointing me in the Grand Lodge Line which gave me the opportunity to serve as Grand Master. Also, for his continued support and advice as I progressed through the Line. Charlie, your friendship of more than 35 years has meant so much to me.

Again I express my sincere thanks to Brothers Harris, Dudley, and their efficient staff for their valuable service to this Grand Lodge. Also, Brother Brewer, our Grand Treasurer for the very efficient way that he handles our funds. To Brothers Gray and Robbins for their service for our Institutions and this Grand Lodge, they go far beyond the call of duty; their service to our guests proves this without a doubt.

To M. W. W. Edward Burrier, P. G. M., who served as my finance chairman and at the untimely death of our beloved Past Grand Master, M. W. William J. Bundy, at my insistence, took over as Chairman of the Jurisprudence Committee. Although he has been quite ill during the year, he has done a magnificent job in keeping me straight and fulfilling all the duties required of this important committee. To my long-time friend and Brother—I do not have adequate words to express my appreciation—all I can say—Ed, thanks from the bottom of my heart.

To M. W. Robert L. Pugh, P. G. M., who served so capably and efficiently as our Chairman of the Masonic Education Committee as well as the Committee on Unity. This distinguished Mason has given of his time, talents and energy to make these two important phases of our Program become a reality within this Grand Jurisdiction. Again, I do not have adequate words to express my appreciation as well as the appreciation of the Brethren—all I can say—Bob, thanks from the bottom of our hearts.

To M. W. J. Edward Allen who agreed to take on the arduous task of compiling the Colonial History of North Carolina. Also, the compiling of an up-to-date "sketch" of 67 of our 117 Past Grand Masters. He has almost completed both of these very difficult jobs. Bro. Ed, this Grand Jurisdiction shall be indebted to you forever.

To Brothers Sam A. Hennis, Jr., Robert N. Bass, Jr., A. A. Kafer, Jr., James G. Johnston, G. Dudley Humphrey, and last but certainly not least my immediate predecessor, William A. Hooks. His advice and counsel, as I came up the Grand Lodge Line just back of him, has been a real asset to me this year—thanks Bill. And to all the other Past Grand Masters, your friendship and advice has meant a great deal to me. Thanks for all your efforts in behalf of this Grand Lodge.

To the members of my Lodge, North Wilkesboro No. 407, the Masons of the 50th Masonic District and Wilkes Chapter No. 42, Order of the Eastern Star for the Testimonial Dinners they gave for me. For their support and many kindnesses to me, this has to be the highlight of my year.

To W. Bro. T. G. Foster, Master of my Lodge last year and to W. Bro. Wm. F. Owen, Jr., Master of my Lodge this year, thanks from the bottom of my heart for your kind deeds and thoughtful efforts in my behalf. This is certainly the sentiments of my wife and son as well as mine. They too, appreciate your many kindnesses, especially the miles you have driven for me.

Again, my Brethren, for the many gifts and honors bestowed upon me during the year, I say thanks for my family and me. You have indicated to me that you will support your Grand Master with all the fervency and zeal at your command. This demonstrates to me, the high esteem in which you hold the office of Grand Master.

And finally, I want to thank the one who has given me the inspiration and drive to carry out the aims and goals of this High Office, to my wife, Pat, thanks for your love and support—without it I could not have made it.

CONCLUSION

Now that I will have soon completed my service to this Grand Lodge and to you, in relinquishing my office I follow a strict rule in the Walsh family—you seek at a level at which you wish to serve, then having achieved it you give it your fullest and best ability and leave it hopefully to those who subscribe to the same philosophy, thus the office can only continually grow and prosper with each succeeding year of tenure.

I leave the office of Grand Master with a grateful heart. Any gains that we have made could not have been accomplished without the help and assistance of you MASONs who throughout the years have proved your loyalty and devotion to our Great Fraternity.

The outstanding group of Past Grand Masters stand ready at all times to aid and assist in the progress of this Grand Lodge, therefore we can all look forward to a bright and prosperous future. I know this Grand Lodge will be able to sail with favorable winds on a calm sea in the coming years.

The time has now come for me to turn over the helm of leadership to others who will steer our ship of state. To my successor, and to all Grand Lodge Officers, my sincere best wishes in managing the affairs of our Grand Lodge. I pledge to all of you my complete support in the coming years.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

(Docket No. 25)

The following report of the Committee on Fraternal Correspondence was read, entered on the record, adopted by sections and then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina:

The appointment at the hands of Most Worshipful Maurice E. Walsh, Grand Master, affords us the pleasurable opportunity to submit our fourth annual report as your Committee on Fraternal Correspondence.

Your Committee has not received from any Grand Lodge of Freemasons a request for recognition of its regularity and the exchange of representatives. We, your Committee, therefore, have no recommendations to make in this regard at this time.

Your Committee has been apprised by copy of a letter dated 15th March, 1971, that the United Grand Lodge of England did on March 10, 1971, withdraw its recognition from the Grand Lodge of Alpina of Switzerland for failing to conform with the Basic Principles of Freemasonry.

After diligent inquiry, your Committee is unable at this time to ascertain the reasons for which this action on the part of the United Grand Lodge of England was deemed necessary. Therefore, your Committee does not with this report recommend to our Grand Lodge that it withdraw recognition from the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland and that relations cease between these two Grand Lodges. Your Committee does recommend, however, that action on this matter be withheld until proper determination can be made of the manner in which the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland is now failing to conform with the Basic Principles of Freemasonry.

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

(Docket No. 26)

The following report of the Grand Historian was received and entered on the record:

TO the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons of North Carolina:

It is fitting that we should record in the official annals of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina a few of the remarks made by W. Henry L. Bridges on March 1, 1971, the occasion of the 150th Anniversary of the Chartering of Greensboro Lodge No. 76, A.F. & A.M. on March 1, 1821.

"There were Master Masons living in Guilford County in the 1790's and early 1800. The Grand Lodge, on October 20, 1820, issued a dispensation to Master Masons to organize Greensboro Lodge, designating Christopher Moring, Master; Henry Humphrey, Senior Warden; Marmaduke Mendenhall, Junior Warden; Abraham Geren, Treasurer; and Lotan G. Watson, Secretary.

Greensborough (original spelling) Lodge was chartered by the Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, March 1, 1821, and was numbered 76.

The first Communication of the Lodge was held January 30, 1821. Christopher Moring was the first Master. He gave the first Masonic Lecture; and Dr. Donald A. Steward, who came from Scotland, was the first person initiated. Abraham Whitty was the first member Raised, 'twas on February 10, 1821. The Lodge purchased its first Masonic Lottery Tickets on August 3, 1821, from Eagle Lodge No. 19 of Hillsboro, to aid them in the construction of their temple.

"According to a motion adopted March 30, 1821, it was the duty of the Tyler to ring the bell at 7:00 o'clock on the evenings the Lodge was to meet. A penalty of twenty cents was imposed for the failure to preform this duty. A similar penalty was imposed upon members who failed to be present in the Lodge within fifteen minutes after the ringing of the bell.

"The Lodge is affectionately known as "Old 76", a nickname unwittingly given it by one of its members, the late S. M. Parris, who in a letter addressed to the Lodge April 15, 1859, said, "I shall be prepared to stand upon the square with Old 76."

"Old 76"—Oh! What a flood of memories this name awakens! These memories stretching across many years and are linked with every phase of the life of our City. It has lived longer and played a larger part in the life of Greensboro than any other one organization. Its long honored roll of membership contains the names of those who have made this history. Its officers and members have officiated at various public ceremonies, and served our country in time of war.

"It is not possible to measure or estimate by any human calculation the good accomplished and the sacrifices made by its members during these one hundred and fifty years. Aside from fine fellowship and the fraternal feeling engendered and fostered within its ranks its silent but potent influence in a thousand ways and through countless channels have contributed to the uplifting and upbuilding of this community. While other organizations and orders have come and gone and faded from the memory of men during the last one hundred and fifty years, "Old 76" still lives in unimpaired vigor with a fine membership representing the best and the highest in our citizenship, dispensing still its alms and blessings and exerting still the power of its prestige for the good of the sons of men.

"Thus it will be seen that the Lodge during its long life in peace and in war, and in every emergency has measured up to its fraternal obligation and human duty.

In the year 1851, we find the members engaged in the ground breaking ceremony for the North Carolina Railroad; the first to come to Greensboro, and now a part of the Southern Railway. At the invitation of ex-Governor Morehead, members of the Lodge were invited on the 11th day of July of that year to march in uniform to the place of breaking ground for the railroad at or near the old passenger station, where and when Honorable Calvin Graves of Caswell County dug the first spade of dirt. In this connection it may not be amiss to note that Honorable Calvin Graves cast the deciding vote in the Legislature of 1848-1849 that secured the charter for this railroad, and for this reason he was assigned the place of honor on the program of that day.

L.M. Clymer, one of our members, was largely responsible for the erection of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home in North Carolina. His untiring efforts resulted in getting the Home located in Greensboro. He was elected the first Superintendent of the Home, June 10, 1914.

"At the suggestion of Past Master R. H. Mitchell, a special communication was held in the State of Virginia in honor of George Washington, a great Mason, and to place an apron on his grave in true masonic fashion. The Grand Lodge granted a dispensation to hold such communication. With the consent of the Grand Lodge of Virginia, Greensboro Lodge was opened on February 22, 1932, at nine o'clock a. m., in the Alexandria Washington Lodge Hall. There were 24 members and 75 visitors present. The members and visitors then proceeded to the tomb of Washington in full regalia and placed an apron on the grave with proper ceremony. This is the first time that a Lodge in North Carolina has held a communication within the jurisdiction of another Grand Lodge.

The idea for a Masonic Museum in Greensboro was discussed by our members on their visit to Mount Vernon, Virginia, and it was chartered on March 10, 1932. It now contains over 5,600 items.

"There is enshrined within the walls of this Temple a Masonic Box containing many historic and contemporary items. When this box is opened at the 250th Anniversary of "Old 76", it is hoped that the officers serving Greensboro No. 76 at that time will gain inspiration for greater achievements in which the principles of Freemasonry are the foundation stones upon which rests our Nation and Civilization.

"The history of "Old 76" in contemporary times is well preserved in the hearts and minds of our present membership.

"On this occasion, let me ask two questions: What is it that has kept this Fraternity going this long? What is it that has kept Masonry alive?

Much could be said in answering these questions. But, let me say that the brethren of the past have handed the light down to us. It is our task to pass that light on to others.

"The future is in our hands tonight, and I am confident that the brethren of "Old 76" and those of other lodges will continue to perform our task as Master Masons and live up to our noble heritage."

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES G. JOHNSTON, P.G.M.

REPORT OF THE JUDGE ADVOCATE

(Docket No. 27)

The following report of the Judge Advocate was received, entered on the record, and adopted:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I hereby submit my report as Judge Advocate:

At the time of the last Annual Communication held in Durham in April, 1970, two cases were pending and since that time ten additional cases have been referred to me. Four of these cases have been disposed of by the Judge Advocate pursuant to the provisions of Reg. 99-22 of the Code. Five cases have been heard by Trial Commissioners and disposed of. Two additional cases were heard by Trial Commissioners on April 16, 1971, however, sufficient time has not elapsed in which to transcribe the minutes of the proceedings and have them certified to the Judge Advocate. These cases will be disposed of in due course of time.

A complaint was filed with the Judge Advocate on April 16, 1971, and an attempt is being made to adjust the controversy between the parties; however, if this fails, normal procedures will be followed. Therefore, at this time only three matters are pending before the Judge Advocate.

My term as Judge Advocate will expire at this Annual Meeting of the Grand Lodge and due to the instability of my health, I have requested that another be elected to this position.

I am deeply grateful to the members of the Craft, the Officers of the Grand Lodge, the officers of the various Lodges and the Trial Commissioners who have given me their full cooperation and I especially want to thank Brother Charles A. Harris, Grand Secretary, Brother R. P. Dudley, Assistant to the Grand Secretary and the Staff in the Offices of the Grand Lodge for their helpfulness and complete cooperation with me in connection with my duties during my tenure as Judge Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

Emery B. Denny, P. M.

Judge Advocate

PRESENTATION OF LIFE MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATE TO THE GRAND MASTER

W. Brother Thomas G. Foster, P. M., W. Brother William F. Owen, Jr., Master of North Wilkesboro Lodge No. 407 and M. W. Charles C. Ricker, P. G. M., presented M. W. Brother Maurice E. Walsh a Certificate of Life Membership in North Wilkesboro Lodge No. 407 on behalf of the membership of the lodge.

REPORT OF THE GRAND LECTURER

(Docket No. 32)

The following report was read by W. Brother James E. Spicer, Grand Lecturer, received and entered on the record:
To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brethren, Right Worshipful Brethren and Brethren all, I didn't really realize what a monumental task I was accepting last year when I said I would try to serve as Grand Lecturer for the Grand Lodge of North Carolina. It has been a most rewarding experience for me. I have thoroughly enjoyed my travels over the state I have been able to make, particularly our Proficiency Examinations last year. I got the happy privilege of meeting about 300 of the Certified Lecturers in the state, and it was a real pleasure for me.

I have left a lot to be desired during the year, things that I would like to have done that I have not done, but I hope the Proficiency Program is as good as it appears to be in our state. I would like to commend the District Deputy Grand Lecturers for the fine job they have done. We have had 99% efficiency this year I think.

I think the thing that is lacking and which we, as Certified Lecturers, could help with, would be promoting the work in the lodge, not trying to make everybody become Certified Lecturers. Of course, we would be happy if you would, but maybe this is what we have promoted too much. I don't mean by that that we can have too many Certified Lecturers—I don't mean that at all. But you know it really hurts when you go into a lodge which has four, five or six or even one Certified Lecturer and these people are doing a great deal of the work, particularly the lectures and this type of work. I would like for us to promote or encourage any brother to become proficient in one part of the work. Then if wants to pursue it further, he can. I think that we, as Certified Lecturers in this Grand Jurisdiction, can add a lot to the work in the lodges if we would do this. We need these brethren to participate, we need their attendance and if they have a job assigned to them to do maybe they will come. I think we could serve a great purpose here if we would do this, not promoting trying to make everybody a Certified Lecturer, but promoting individual participation in a certain part of the work. I say again, Most Worshipful Sir, it has been a pleasure and I have enjoyed every minute of my work this year. I am sorry I have not done a better job, but I have enjoyed what I have done. Thank you so much.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES E. SPICER, Grand Lecturer

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MASONIC AND EASTERN STAR HOME OF NORTH CAROLINA, INC.

(Docket No. 33)

The following supplemental report of the Board of Directors of the Masonic and the Eastern Star Home of North Carolina, Inc., was read by M. W. Brother Robert N. Bass, Jr., P. G. M., received, entered on the record and referred to the committee on finance:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

Most Worshipful Grand Master and Brethren, the report of the Board of Directors of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home begins on page 11 of the Reports and Rosters. In addition to that, I would like to tell you that the contract for completing the third floor at the Home was let about ten days ago at the cost of $128,000.00. The Care Center as it stands now costs a total of $853,462.00. After this unit is completed, we hope at that time to erect a new office building and join it on at the front of the institution where there now stands a building that was erected in 1912. That will complete all the renovation and buildings that are now planned for the institution. Brethren, I want to thank each of you for your support and your contributions to the Home over the past ten years. You know, the Home has grown from 75 members to now 140. We have one of the greatest institutions, as your Grand Master said today, we feel like, in these United States. Take a little time out of your busy schedule to visit your Home and to go and say hello to some of the guests. Brethren, it will be a rewarding day for you and will add happiness to their day. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT N. BASS, P. G. M., President

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NECROLOGY

(Docket No 34)

The following report of the Committee on Necrology was delivered by W. Brother W. Kemper Fitch, Jr., Past Master, and entered on the record:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven; A time to be born, and a time to die." Ecclesiastes 3:1-2.

We gather about this altar today in remembrance of the 1264 Master Masons of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free, and Accepted Masons of North Carolina who no longer needing the Great Lights of Masonry are in that eternal and perpetual Light.

Throughout their Masonic life they sought light. And to it was ever added light unto coming light. Even as you and I, they too stood at the door and knocked and were received by order of the Worshipful Master. They have once again stood at the door and been received by order of the Most Worshipful Supreme Grand Master into that temple not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

For them life was a little strange for the times in which we live. For theirs have been lives lived in service to God, to Country, to neighbor, as well as to self. Each, regardless of his stations in life was a Master Mason. We do not mourn their passing, but rather we rejoice with them that they passed through that door, which as yet, we have to enter.

Just as each of us stood a little trembling and anxious, outside the door of a lodge, so must they too, have been a little trembling and anxious outside the door of that Celestial Lodge. But, even as we had a friend, whom we afterward found to be a brother, so they too, had a friend whom they afterward found to be a brother when their trust was in the Redeeming Lion of Judah.

When we miss a long familiar face, when a chair is vacant, when there is no longer one to grasp by the hand as a brother, we have that moment of sorrow, a choking of the throat and the welling of tears in the eyes. But let us face it as it is. Our sorrow is not for them, it is for ourselves. For they have not lost, we are the ones who have lost.

Their lives lived in Masonry were but lives being prepared for that which they have now received. We often long for voices stilled to be able to speak again. This we know is impossible. However, we can look at the great lessons they learned in the fraternity and which we have also learned but perhaps need to recall again.

You and I find it almost impossible to comprehend the tragic despair that was cast over the disciples like a mantle between the time Jesus gasped his last breath on the Cross on Calvary and that time three days and three nights later, when the fingers of sunlight lifted the curtain of darkness. For three years, these disciples had followed him over Palestine. Whatever job or vocation they had, they had cast it aside to follow him. As they followed they had seen his love reaching out to the unwanted and the outcast. They had listened to his marvelous teachings about God. As to a man, they had marveled at his courage as he faced the "establishment." These same disciples had placed their highest hopes on this Carpenter from Nazareth. He asked them the question: "Who do you say that I am?" Impetuous Peter was the one with a fast reply: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Then in swift events, so swift we can hardly follow in our minds as we read, Jesus was betrayed, arrested, tried, convicted and crucified. From the cross came the cry of Jesus, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" And from the heart of every disciple echoed the same pathetic question. They felt forsaken, lost, bereft of power and purpose. Their Lord, their Master, their God, had died. And the living center of their lives, died with him. In fear for their lives, they fled and locked the doors. There was no need to meet again, or to talk about Jesus again.

Then something called "Resurrection" happened. Into the darkness of despair shot a shaft of sunlight. At first, none of the disciples believed the news. This is the most consistent fact in the Gospel tradition concerning Resurrection. But as the shadows of Resurrection Day lengthen, the followers of Jesus grow in the assurance that their Lord and Master is no longer dead, but alive. Their cowardice turns to courage, their despair to hope, their tragedy to triumph.

Morning came. The irreducible meaning of the Resurrection is expressed in the words that morning always comes. And remember when that morning comes, it is God's morning and not ours. When we pray for God's kingdom to come, we do not pray for our kingdom to come, but His. The morning is not on our own terms, but on God's terms.

The Resurrection faith proclaims that vindication of God's purposes in Jesus Christ. He is the victor over sin and death. The demonic powers may hold sway, but eventually God has the last word. This faith truly affirmed will change the way we relate to historical crisis. As these our brethren have laid down the working tools of life and have come up out of the quarries, it will give us a new reason for involvement and new strength for the tasks ahead.

We come back to the vows these our departed brethren and we ourselves took at Masonry's altar, which basically boil down to these words of the Galilean: "Therefore, all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." "The problem of death is basically a problem of life, and what happens beyond the grave is a continuation of what is taking place now. We cannot live life on our own terms but must live it on God's terms. We cannot persist in building our own little kingdom instead of working for his kingdom. God's will is done in heaven.

So with us, as it was with our deceased brothers, God is with us in our dying as well as in our living. He is the only faithful One; the One who gives us life, and the One in whom we have life. Those who have experienced his grace in this life "take no thought for the morrow," for they know, that mysteriously, inexplicably, and gloriously, "morning always comes," and we shall be with them in that morning.

(Note: M. W. Robert L. Pugh, P. G. M., presented the following Eulogy to M. W. Brother William J. Bundy, P. G. M.)

WILLIAM JAMES BUNDY

You are not dead—Life has but set you free!
 Your years of life were like a lovely song,
 The last sweet, poignant notes of which, held long,
 Passed into silence while we listened, we
 Who loved you listened still expectantly!
 And we about you whom you moved among
 Would feel that grief for you were surely wrong—
 You have but passed beyond where we can see.
 Life never lost for you its lovely look;
 You kept your interest in its thrilling book;
 To you death came no Conqueror; in the end—
 You merely smiled to greet another friend!

All men who deserve to live, desire to survive their funerals and to live afterward in the good that they have done mankind, rather than in the fading characters written in men's memories. Most men desire to leave some work behind them that may outlast their own day and brief generation. That is an instinctive impulse, given by God. That is a poor ambition indeed which contents itself within the limits of a single life for the true Christian labors for the benefit of those who are to come after him.

To plant the trees which, after we are dead, shall shelter our children, is as natural as to love the shade of those our fathers planted. If that be true, and I am confident that it is true, what a magnificent forest of trees was planted by "Dick" Bundy. Sometimes it has been said that one cannot see the forest because of the trees, but in the forest which our beloved friend cultivated, each beautiful tree was a worthy compliment of each of the others and the total picture presented a vast panorama of God's love as expressed and exemplified in the life of this great and good Mason whose memory will last as long as men continue to feel the tender bonds of brotherhood. "Dick" was with us for slightly more than seventy years and what a faithful life it was! How useful he was, how influential he was, how necessary he was to the orderly and symmetrical machinery which governs our great Fraternity.

His forest consisted of many fine trees, tall, handsome, stately, and beautiful. There was his family to whom he was devoted: his wife, his mother, his brother, his daughter, and his grandchildren. In his forest there were also the trees of loyalty, of love and devotion, for he was the essence of loyalty to his friends and to all for whom he felt a responsibility. There were trees of sincerity and humility because he was sincere and humble in all things. He was not one who loved a great display; he much preferred to have things done in a plain but attractive and simple way.

There were trees of encouragement and inspiration because he was a great source in encouragement and inspiration to many people. There were trees also of jovial congeniality, of delightful traits of personality, of good judgment and sound decisions; large, magnificent trees of a deep and abiding love for all of the brethren, of a keen desire to have a job done well. What a tremendous forest it was, so full of beautiful gigantic trees, and each one a true and accurate representative of one of the finest spirits that has ever blessed our land.

When the news flashed through North Carolina on that fateful evening, that our former friend, brother, beloved counselor, and magnificent benefactor had passed away, the victim of a massive heart attack on Friday evening, June 27, 1970, in Stavanger, Norway, while on a tour of Scandinavian countries with his wife, those who knew him and who had been close to him, were more conscious than ever that he was a man who had indeed put his hand into the hand of God, that he had followed the light faithfully and zealously as God had given him to see that light, that he had lived a life, rich and full, glorious and triumphant; that he had created friends without number, and that the large areas in which he lived and moved and worked so faithfully and effectively would never be the same thereafter. Certainly his was a useful life, eventful and fruitful, one into which was packed a life of genuine and unselfish service to his fellow man; a genuine love of life.

"The moving finger writes, and, having writ, moves on. . ." The writing has been completed in the life for our beloved friend, Dick Bundy, but his influence will never die, for it is everlasting. We sorrow because he is gone, it is true. We will never see the day when we cease to grieve over his passing and mourn his loss. There is the deepest of grief in our hearts and yet he has not departed from us in a very real sense. "Life is a pure flame, and we have an invisible sun within us." Just as the glow remains to light up the world long after the sun has disappeared, so the light shining from the soul of such a devout and faithful brother as "Dick" Bundy shines as a beacon to us who are left behind to pick up and to hold high the torch of light and love and brotherhood which he has given us.

The passing of our lamented brother has brought to nearly everyone in the State a keen and deep sense of personal loss. It is indeed shocking and hard to realize that we shall see his gentle and jovial spirit among us no more. He was a man of infinite patience, of exceeding good humor, and of good will. He was without guile, without malice, without a meager suggestion of insincerity. He was honorable in everything and trustworthy beyond description. The simplicity and naturalness of his good-will drew to him everyone who came in contact with him. We have never known one with such a magnetic personality.

It is now only a few months since he passed away and, even so, it can be safely said that each passing day only adds to the greatness of his soul and to the value of his worth as he moved in and out among his brethren carrying out the duties of the tasks of brotherhood to which he has always devoted. His stature increases day by day, and it will continue to increase as time goes on. His influence will continue unabated as long as living man will be able to recall his memory. His passionate love for his brethren now assumes, and will continue to assume, an almost holy radiance. Countless lives will continue to reflect the genius of his noble personality as they express their heartfelt gratitude for the privilege of association with this devout and devoted servant of "The Brotherhood of Man in the Fatherhood of God."

So many expressive and beautiful tributes have been paid him from the great and the small, the high and the low, from all who had come under the delightful and wholesome charm of his beneficent personality, that it would now seem impossible to add anything to that which has been spoken or written. Such a life as his, however, touched so many people in so many different walks of life, in so many different sections of our State, and always in such an elevating, wholesome and energizing manner that tributes to him will continue to be paid as long as man recognizes an indebtedness to unselfish fraternal service. This man never forgot his great desire to serve. Such an attitude as he possessed, and such a noble spirit, could only be found in a man who walks day by day with his Creator, in one who is so constant and faithful in his loyalty and devotion, that, like Enoch, he walked hand in hand with God and then, when at last God decided that Heaven needed to be made a little brighter and happier, when God decided that he needed a jovial personality to brighten and charm the atmosphere of Eternity, He called His servant to walk on through the portals into that temple not made with hands and there to continue forever the close association and companionship.

The Grand Lodge of North Carolina will never be the same without him. The Communications which we hold annually will greatly miss his radiant and charming personality. He was always present, always alert to the transactions whether they were in Committee sessions, Board meetings, or whether they were in the Grand Lodge meetings itself. He was always keenly aware of what was going on, and he never failed to exercise his keen judgment in evaluating and concluding whatever action was being considered.

As a public speaker he was always unselfish in his willingness to meet with groups and to charm them with his keen and brilliant eloquence for his erudition was without a peer in North Carolina. No doubt he was by far one of the best after-dinner speakers that Masonry has produced and his audiences always were loud in their appreciation of his contribution. He was always interested in playing a part in recognizing the valued services of some of the brethren in the State who had contributed so much and who had reached a time in life when recognition appeared advisable. Always at such moments as this, our beloved friend was more than anxious to contribute his invaluable talents to the end that this recognition should be made with full and complete appropriateness. One of our good friends referred to him as: "Most Noble Dick". Dick loved this and often quoted it in an appreciative way.

He was my personal benefactor, as he was the benefactor of many of you here this day and of countless scores of others who are not privileged to be here for this occasion. I might not have had the privilege of meeting him and of knowing him had we not traveled in the quarries of Masonry together; this I do not know, for it is entirely in the realm of conjecture. What I do know is that Masonry became the medium through which we were brought together. I can safely say that whatever honors I may have received, whatever accomplishments I may have been able to make in the field of Masonry, have been due, in large measure, to the fact that he gave me my initial start. It became a close association that matured as the years went by and I was benefitted by his council, his wisdom, and by the magnetic personality with which he was so richly endowed. Not much time had elapsed in our association before we began throwing jokes at each other in Masonic gatherings. This continued for a while and on one occasion he came to me and said, "They seem to like this quite a bit; suppose we keep it up"? To this I agreed and from that moment on, each of us utilized every opportunity available for this purpose.

He was masterful in his oratorical skill. I am sure I am not overstating the case when I say that perhaps he got more real thrill out of serving as Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge in Durham during the Annual Communication in April of 1970 than any other honor which had come his way along the speaking line. He enjoyed it because it was one of the honors that had never come to him and he had a burning desire to fill some of the positions and to do some of the things that he had never been privileged to fill or to do.

His use of illustrations as a medium of carrying a point was masterful. How many times have we heard him use the illustration of the "burning bush" when he wanted to demonstrate his reliance upon divine wisdom for the solution of many of the perplexing questions which confronted him as a Judge in the Superior Court of North Carolina. I can recall him saying, "I would lean back in my Judge's chair and cast my mind and my eyes toward heaven and ask God for divine wisdom that I might arrive at a proper decision when being faced with a most perplexing and disturbing case in court." And then he would add, "I saw no burning bush, I did not hear the lightning flash or the thunder roar, but brethren, just as surely as I was sitting in that position, I received an answer from on High."

How many times have we heard him quote the poem, "Abou Ben Adhem" when he wanted to illustrate the ideal of service to ones fellow man. How many times have we seen him use his favorite gesture in making the point when he would extend his hand at about a forty-five degree angle and pointing the forefinger upward toward the sky, and with a delightful and infectious twinkle of the eye, depending upon the type of point he wanted to carry, he would thrill his audience with his masterful presentation. How many times have we seen him use his impediment of speech, a slight stammer, but he used it as the most wonderful asset, capitalizing upon it to the utmost. It would seem that whenever he was approaching a decisive moment in an address or speech that the stammering defect would bring about a slowness of speech and then, most effectively, the climax of his point would come forth. Never have we seen any individual make such wonderful capital out of a defect.

How many times have we listened to him draw upon his experiences as a Lawyer, as a District Solicitor, and then as a Judge on the Superior Court. Added to this were the stories which he could always relate with such telling effect of his experiences as Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina and as Potentate of Sudan Temple. All of these, and many, many more, we recall day after day, and meeting after meeting, because as long as the memory of man, or, as he would express it, "as long as the memory of man runneth not to the contrary", as long as our memory continues, we will bear true witness to the fact that not a single hour, not a single day, not a single meeting goes by without some expression of the great loss we suffered in his tragic passing.

In any gathering, he was always the center of attraction, in any meeting, we looked to him for guidance and direction. As the saying goes, "he was the life of the party", in every situation. The expression of the marvelous talents with which he was endowed was found not only here in his matchless wit and humor when he enlivened the atmosphere of any gathering, but, equally as well, his keen judgment, his ability to analyze a situation and to suggest a practical solution, together with his great understanding of human nature combine to create a feeling among those who were with him, a feeling of confidence and of the utmost security in his judgment and counsel.

It is well that we meditate upon this good man's life, for we could well desire to possess in our lives those elements that made him great. The certainty of this thought was well expressed by a great poet when in that moment of happy reflection he said, "His life was gentle; the elements were so mixed in him that nature might stand up and say, 'Here was a man'." How many times Brother Bundy was heard to use this very same quotation with reference to some other individual to whom he was paying a tribute.

What then were those elements that contributed so much to his nobility of soul and which, if appropriated by us, would permit our lives to exert a more beneficent influence by precept, and yet more by example, upon our fellow man? Among the numerous tributes that have been spoken and written, perhaps none more accurately and beautifully, and at the same time, briefly, described such qualities of grandeur of soul and nobility of character than did one of his very close friends when he said, "If God needed a good man in Heaven, if He needed a personality to brighten up the place, He knew exactly where to find him." The Holy Scriptures, that greatest of our great lights, bear constant testimony to the shortness and uncertainty of human life. We know that it is so very true that "Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth as a flower and is cut down; he fleeth as a shadow, and continueth not." Behold what havoc the scythe of time makes among the human race. Our "three score years and ten" soon fly and then man is summoned to that "undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns". Despite such a brief existence here below a man may so order his life that his usefulness, his character, and his influence survive the grave and shall never, never, never, die. How true this was of "Dick" Bundy. At this hour the memory and the imagination would fondly stoop to trace many cherished thoughts, memories of his service to others, memories of him as a friend and benefactor, memories of him as a faithful guide and counselor, memories of him as a devoted husband, son, brother, father and grandfather, memories of him as a trusted and beloved friend.

These things become vivid and real to us as we continue to hold this type of fellowship with him. This belief is fundamental with us, for life beyond the grave holds many a mystery whose solution is denied providentially to us here below. Nevertheless, the Supreme Architect does permit occasional and brief intimations of the state of our departed. Reverently we would peer through the veil. As we do so, we know that our dead are still living, living a vivid, conscious, and useful life. Their deepest longings are now satisfied. Their earthly dreams and ideals are capable now of full realization. All limitations of the flesh have been removed and they have now moved forward in lives of far greater service. How happy, therefore, they must be, they who sit in that Celestial Lodge above. How much clearer in their vision, how much brighter is their witness, how much stronger their eternal fellowship with one another. It is our faith in this that sustains us, that helps us to overcome the obstacles that confront us day by day realizing that eternity promises full and complete realization of all the limitations which we face on earth.

To his countless numbers of friends and admirers who remain behind to mourn his passing, the world will not seem quite the same. We shall miss his keen sense of humor; his insatiable desire to use catch words and phrases, clauses, that not only entertained his hearers but challenged their interest as well. We shall miss his deep and abiding concern for others and his willingness to render honor and recognition to those who had served well. We shall miss his fellowship, his close companionship, for the unexcelled privilege of association with him, for he was excellent company wherever he chanced to be and his willingness and his valiant service, his dependable, loyal friendship will be sorely missed. Grand Lodge Board meetings and Annual Communications will never be the same, without him; no organization in which he had membership and to which he gave any of his time, interest, and attention, will be able to function as adequately as it once did. Yes, we have lost a close friend, a beloved brother, a wise counselor and Judge, a trusted confidant. We have lost and we have lost heavily. But this is the way of life, and from time to time those we love, and who love us are removed from our presence. Would it not be a sad world indeed if we were not indued with a faith within us that he is not far away, even though we can no longer hear his voice and touch his hand?

As long as time shall last, we shall continue to recall his entertaining and fascinating anecdotes, his keen ability to emphasize a very pungent and striking line in his speech, his magnificent and unexcelled manner of expression, his numerous pet phrases and expressions employed on so many occasions and always in such a humorous and fascinating way. One day we shall meet and know him again, but until that happens, his memory will continue to be sweet to us and it will live long in the lives of those countless numbers he has touched.

On January 30, 1925 he married Miss Ruth Carson of Bethel, North Carolina. To this union was born a daughter, Alyce Ruth, who in the course of time also married and made it possible for our beloved brother to become a grandfather of two fine grandchildren. To them, to his sainted mother, who continues to live in Farmville, to his brother, Sam D. and his brother's family, the Scottish Rite Masons in the Valley of New Bern, and Masons everywhere, express their deepest sympathy. We only wish to express our gratitude to the family for the contribution their beloved one made. In the creation of an influence he will forever shine as the beacon light, guiding us on, and inspiring us through pathways of noble service and into an eternity to be once again with him.

Thus the hand of the Grim Reaper reached down into this Christian home and into our noble Fraternity and withdrew a beloved and valued member, a man who had given his life in the service to God and to his fellow man; a man to whom "The Fatherhood of God in the Brotherhood of Man" was more than an expression. Funeral services were held from the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church in Greenville, North Carolina on Sunday, July 5, 1970, with graveside Masonic services conducted by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina.

The official record of his honors, his achievements, the positions he held in all the phases of his life service, is studded with significant and outstanding achievements and accomplishments. This record will be included in the official proceedings of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina where it will remain as a permanent and a perpetual memorial to the life of a good man, a great Mason, a valued citizen and a beloved servant of God.

"Green be the turf above thee, friend of my better days!
None knew thee, but to love thee,
Nor named thee but to praise."

HONORS, POSITIONS, AND AWARDS RECEIVED BY WILLIAM JAMES BUNDY

William James Bundy was born near Farmville, Pitt County, North Carolina, on February 19, 1900, the son of James T. Bundy and Huldah Gay Bundy. His family moved to Farmville when he was eight years old. He attended the Bynum Public School and after moving to Farmville, Farmville High School from which he was graduated in 1917. He then worked as a salesman for W. M. Lang Company, Inc., a general mercantile firm in Farmville of which his father was president, until the fall of 1918, when he entered Trinity College (now Duke University) with the War Class in the Students Army Training Corps, and was graduated from this institution with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1922.

He then was Principal of the Pinetown High School in Beaufort County for one year, and Assistant Principal of the Bethel High School in Pitt County for one year. After his year of teaching in Bethel, he studied law at Cumberland University Law School in Lebanon, Tennessee, and completed his legal education at Wake Forest Law School in the summer of 1925. He passed the State Bar Examination in August, 1925. Following this he was Principal of Speed High School in Edgecombe County for one year, after which he moved to Bethel in June, 1926, and began the practice of law.

In the fall of 1927, he moved his law office to Greenville but continued to live in Bethel until October 1, 1930, at which time he moved his residence to Greenville, where he has lived and practiced law ever since.

On January 30, 1925, he married Miss Ruth Carson of Bethel, North Carolina, and to this union was born one child, a daughter, Alyce Ruth, who subsequently married and made him the proud grandfather of two delightful grandchildren.

Although raised in Farmville Lodge No. 517, A. F. & A. M., at Farmville, North Carolina, in July, 1921, he did not become active in Masonry until he moved his residence to Greenville, after which time he gave much of his time and efforts to the cause of the craft. He transferred his Masonic membership to Greenville Lodge No. 284 in 1931, served an unexpired term as Treasurer, as Junior Warder in 1933, and upon consolidation of the two Lodges in Greenville in November 1933, he became the first Master of the consolidated lodge, serving through 1934, after which he served as District Deputy Grand Master of the Fifth Masonic District for three years. He was appointed Grand Steward in 1938, serving in each line office until April 17, 1946, at which time he was elected and installed Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina.

He was one of the first instigators of the North Carolina Publication, "The North Carolina Mason" and served on the special Committee which gave birth to this Grand Lodge news media in 1966. When the Board of Publication was created as an outgrowth of the recommendation of the special Committee on Publication, he was made a member of the Board in 1967 and served until 1970, during all of which time he was the Chairman.

In 1966 he was a member of the Committee on Finance, and in 1969 he was the Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, an honor in which he took a great deal of pride. He was also a member of the special Committee on Appendant Orders in 1969 and 1970.

He had great interest in the Order of DeMolay also, and served for a period of time as a State Executive Officer of that Order. He was a member of the Saint John of Patmos Conclave, of the Red Cross of Constantine and served at its Sovereign in 1954. He was also a member of the North Carolina College of the Rosicrucian Society and was its celebrant in 1969-70.

He was one of the few men in history who had served at the same time as Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina and, also, as Illustrious Potentate of Sudan Temple of the A.A.O.N.M.S. This event took place in the year 1947.

Politically, he served as Solicitor of the Third Judicial District for a number of years and, subsequently, was elected as Resident Judge of the Third Judicial District. He held this august position from 1955 to 1970.

MEMORIAL PRAYER

By W. Richard D. Shinkle, Asst. Grand Chaplain

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, as we drop tears upon our coats, we have lost one who was near, many who were near, all who had been near to us. Foot to foot, knee to knee, chest to chest hand to back, mouth to ear, we had contact with them. Now only in this manner of meditation do we have contact. Oh, how we miss them! Oh, how we loved them! And, oh, how we would love to feel them again, but, God, we would not rob them of their dire death, we would not rob them of the glory that is their's now—that they are with the Celestial Master. Be with us Father, care for us, be with the widows and orphans. Let the loving arms of the Man from Galilee be around them as they walk through the valleys of shadows. May we be cognizant of the fact that this too someday will come to us, for man is born to die. Oh God, how we need now to make preparation for that trip to the other shore, and we can only do it this way—through meditation and prayer, and the disciplining of ourselves that we might live as did those who have gone before us. Our friends, thy helpers, our companions, a member of the Craft, showing to the world that we do believe in a Supreme Being. Help us now as another tear drops, and we miss some who have been very close to this Grand Lodge. Help us now, Heavenly Father, as we grope in darkness seemingly wanting to reach out and feel, and so within our souls we do reach out this morning and through the redeemer, have contact with them. Teach us to so number our days that they might say of us that when we have passed on, "Well done, good and faithful servant," and may they know that we will receive with joy those words "enter into that house not made with hands eternal in the Heavens." So mote it be, Amen.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPEALS

(Docket No. 38)

The following report of the Committee on Appeals was read and upon motion duly seconded, was adopted by sections and then adopted as a whole:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

The Committee on Appeals respectfully submits the following report:

1. We have reviewed the record in all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication in 1970, and now pending before the Committee, wherein the accused has been expelled under provisions of Regulation 99-22 of THE CODE of 1948, as amended. We particularly directed our attention to the strict compliance with the Regulation, and in each of the following cases we recommend that the decision of the Judge Advocate be affirmed by the Grand Lodge:

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 254: In the matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Apex Lodge No. 584, A.F. & A.M. Expelled August 17, 1970.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 255: In the matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Clay Lodge No. 301, A.F. & A.M. Expelled August 17, 1970.

2. We have reviewed the record in all cases which have been completed since the Annual Communication in 1970, and now pending before the Committee, in all of which the punishment imposed was expulsion, and in none of which the accused appealed from the decision of the Trial Commission. We directed our attention to the validity of the appointment of Trial Commissioners, the service of notices upon the accused, the competency and weight of the evidence presented at the trial, and the decision of the Commission, all in accordance with the Regulations of this Grand Lodge as contained in Chapters 98 to 106, inclusive, of THE CODE of 1948, as amended. Your Committee approves the decision of the Trial Commission in the following cases, and recommends that the judgment of the Trial Commission in each case be affirmed by the Grand Lodge:

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 253: In the matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Gastonia Lodge No. 369, A.F. & A.M. Expelled May 18, 1970.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 257: In the matter of charges preferred against an Entered Apprentice of Bula Lodge No. 409, A.F. & A.M. Expelled January 5, 1971.

TRIAL DOCKET NO. 258: In the matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Bayboro Lodge No. 331, A.F. & A.M. Expelled January 5, 1971.

In TRIAL DOCKET NO. 256 the Trial Commission imposed a penalty suspension for a definite period of time. There being no appeal, the Judge Advocate's certificate to the validity of trial form and procedure completed required action in this case.

3. In the matter of the Petition for Restoration of William Carroll Martin. The petition was filed with the Grand Secretary more than thirty days before this Annual Communication. The petitioner was dismembered on March 24, 1947 by Lovelady Lodge No. 670. A true copy of the petition with statement of the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks restoration was served on Lovelady Lodge No. 670, A.F. & A.M., in accordance with Chapter 109 of THE CODE of 1948, as amended, more than ninety days before this Annual Communication, and no petition has been presented to the Grand Lodge in opposition to granting restoration to the petitioner under the provision of Regulation 109-07. On the other hand, Lovelady Lodge No. 670, went on record in favor of granting restoration to the petitioner. After carefully examining the record in this matter, this Committee recommends that the Grand Lodge restore William Carroll Martin to all the rights and privileges of a nonaffiliated Mason.

4. In the matter of the Petition for Restoration of F. J. W. to the rights and privileges of Masonry. The petition was filed with the Grand Secretary more than thirty days before this Annual Communication. This petitioner was dismembered on August 29, 1966 (TRAIL DOCKET NO. 231). A true copy of the petition with statement of the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks restoration was served on St. John's Lodge No. 4, A.F. & A.M., in accordance with Chapter 109 of THE CODE of 1948, as amended, on January 19, 1971, more than ninety days before this Annual Communication, and no petition has been presented to the Grand Lodge in opposition to granting restoration to the petitioner under the provision of Regulation 109-07. After carefully examining the record in this manner, and considering the lack of information supplied by the petitioner, this Committee is of the opinion that he is not entitled to restoration at this time. For that reason this Committee recommends that the Grand Lodge deny this petition for restoration.

5. In the matter of charges preferred against a Master Mason of Grifton Lodge No. 243, in which the judgment of the Trial Commission was expulsion (TRIAL DOCKET NO. 259). In this case the COMPLAINANT, Grifton Lodge No. 243, served notice of appeal on the grounds that some of its members, deemed the judgment of the Trial Commission too severe. We directed our attention to the validity of the appointment of Trial Commissioners, the service of notice upon the accused, the seriousness of the charge, the competency and weight of the evidence presented at the trial, and the decision of the Trial Commission. We, also, carefully considered the argument and contentions of the appellant. While we commend these brethren for their charitable attitude, no real mitigative matter was adduced. Your Committee approves the decision of the Trial Commission. We, therefore, recommend that the judgment of expulsion rendered by the Trial Commission be affirmed by the Grand Lodge.

NORWOOD P. PARKER, Chairman

ADDRESS OF THE GRAND ORATOR

(Docket No. 39)

The Grand Master recognized and presented W. Brother Hargrove Bowles, Jr., Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who delivered the following oration:

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

What is Freemasonry?

What makes you a Freemason?

Is it the ritual? Is it really the obligations, like you have said? Or is it attending a lot of Masonic Meetings, or attaining a lot of extra Degrees or High Rank in Masonic Circles? Well, it could be all of these or none of these.

Freemasonry means many things to many people. This is why it is universal. Sometimes I think many of us tend to get one Masonry so wrapped up in all kinds of ritual, theory and conflicting notions as to its origin that we get lost.

We may think of Freemasonry as a complicated thing—something that we have difficulty relating to the world around us. Let me tell you what Masonry means to me.

Freemasonry is much like the Holy Bible. (Of course, this isn't very surprising since Masonry draws much of its power from that source.) Freemasonry, in its purest essence, is beautifully simple and practical. It boils down to two things—pleasing God and serving humanity. It's just that simple.

When you and I have come to the end of our toilsome journey and our trembling souls stand naked and alone before the great white throne, we are going to be judged by simple standards.

We are going to be asked to give answers to some simple questions, like these: Did you: Give the thirsty a drink? Feed the hungry? Care for the orphan and the widow? Bind up the wounds of the afflicted? Clothe the ragged? Greet the stranger? Visit the sick? Care for the outcast?

How we answer these questions is what really counts. It's just that simple. It is often the simple things that make the greatest impact upon one's life.

I can remember very vividly, as a young man, listening to my Uncle Charles, who was a Methodist minister, preach his sermon, "A Cup of Cold Water". He took his text from Matthew. The Disciples were arguing about greatness. They were trying to decide what would be the basis to judge themselves on. Jesus brought them back to reality when he took a little child upon his lap and said to the Disciples: "If you are kind to one such child in my name, you not only serve me, you please God". And he added, "Whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name shall not lose his reward". A cup of cold water to the thirsty—a simple but noble act. In Biblical times the ultimate in courtesy was to give the traveler who passed your gate a cup of water. Water was scarce.

My mother thought that chicken soup would cure just about every affliction that existed; bless her heart. Mumps, measles, the flu, the blues. I recall, as a child, mother giving me a bowl of chicken soup and asking me to carry it to a sick neighbor. Frequently, I would have to give up playing my games in a warm house to go out on a miserably cold day and carry a bowl of chicken soup to a neighbor. At the time, I thought that this was foolish. For, in the first place, they might not like chicken soup, and in the second place, I knew that in many instances, the neighbors to whom I carried the soup could better afford to buy whatever they wanted than we could. Why such a little thing as a bowl of soup? Of course, I can better understand now what this was all about. I can still smell that chicken soup as I carried it along and feel its warmth on my hands.

These incidents made lasting impressions upon me.

This is a great Country that you and I live in. This United States of America is a Country with a king-sized heart. Sure it needs improving but with all of its faults, where is a better place to live?

We should all be thankful for the Judeo-Christian standards that the Masonic Fraternity has inherited to govern us by. One of which is helping our brothers and neighbors.

This philosophy of helping our brother and our neighbor is foreign to people in many parts of the world—most in fact. This is why we have trouble with some of the countries that we give aid to. This is why some seem ungrateful for what we do for them.

I have been active in an aid program to the people of Bolivia. They just can't understand why we want to help. They want to know what's in it for us? What is our motive? They are waiting for the other shoe to drop. I'm glad I live in a land and can be a member of a Fraternity of Freemasons that believes in helping those who need it.

Let's listen again to the important questions: Did you: Give the thirsty a drink? Feed the hungry? Care for the orphan and the widow? Bind up the wounds of the afflicted? Clothe the ragged? Greet the stranger? Visit the sick? Care for the outcast? All of these acts can be summed up in one word "charity".

The USA is the most charitable nation on the face of the earth. Where do we get this heritage of concern for our fellow man? There is a considerable basis for the practice of charity in both Freemasonry and the Holy Bible. Here are a few:

Masonic: One of the first lessons taught us in Masonry is "Charity". The theological ladder which Jacob in his vision saw extending from earth to Heaven contained three principal rounds which are called Faith, Hope and Charity. They admonish us to have faith in God, hope in immortality, and charity to all mankind. Of these, the greatest is charity. Faith may be lost in sight. Hope ends in fruition. But charity extends beyond the grave through the boundless realms of eternity.

We are taught in the First Degree lecture that to relieve the distressed is a duty incumbent upon all men, but particularly on Masons, who are linked together by an indissoluble chain of sincere affection. To soothe the unhappy, to sympathize with their misfortunes, and to restore peace to their troubled minds, is the greatest aim we have in view. On this basis we form our friendships and establish our connections.

Biblical—Colossians 3:14: And above all things put on charity which is the bond of perfectness.

II Thessalonians 1:3: We are bound to thank God always for you brethren as it is meet, because that your faith grows exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth.

I Timothy 1:5: Now the end of the Commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscious, and of faith unfeigned.

II Timothy 2:22: Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart (charity cleanses the soul).

Titus 2:2: That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, and in patience.

I Peter 4:8: And above all things, have fervent charity among yourselves, for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

II Peter 1:7: And to Godliness, brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness, charity.

It has taken us many years of reading and observation and experience to realize that charity has been one of the noblest impulses which has stirred the hearts of fine-grained men and women of the past 4,000 years.

Mankind has taken long strides during the past 4,000 years from the attitude of the average man of that era who naively inquired, "Shall I starve while my sister has children she could sell?"

There are probably hundreds of millions of people of our day who would be revolted if they should encounter a person with such a selfish and unfeeling attitude toward others. Rather, many of our generations respect and honor the man who feels an unselfish concern for the well-being of the less fortunate, and who demonstrates his desire to help his fellow man. Indeed, to help mankind to higher levels of civilized life.

Succeeding generations have demonstrated this desire through private charities and through political and social actions.

In reviewing our history and heritage of charity, we find, for illustration that the Hammurabic Code, written about 2000 B. C., adjured the Babylonians to take care that "justice be done to widows, orphans, and the poor".

As early as 1500 B. C., we find it recorded that the Phoenecian gods demanded the first fruits of all products be given to the service of religion.

About 1300 B. C. Moses originated an effective technique of philanthropy—the tithe. The tenth part of the yield of the harvest had to be given to the Lord, in support of religion and for the relief of the poor.

Every seventh year, the people were required to let their fields lie fallow and the poor were permitted to garner the spontaneous growth during that Sabbatical year. At every harvest a corner of each field was left unharvested for the poor.

The Pentateuch (first 5 Books of Old Testament containing "Laws of Moses") commanded charity for the unfortunate members of society and insisted that benevolence was an imperative duty, not a matter of graceful choice. All through the history of the Jewish race righteousness has found its most practical and fervid expression in charity. "The Cell of Silence" or "Chamber of Whispers" was a later Jewish charity technique which came very near to being the ideal exercise of charity. These names were given to a quiet room in the synagogue into which the charitable entered unobserved, and left donations for respectable poor, who also entered unobserved to obtain the help they needed.

About 450 B. C., the gentle Gautama—Buddha to us—established in India a religion based upon self-restraint and charity for the poor. Two hundred years later we come upon the story of the first endowment of foreign missions. The good King Asoka was so impressed by the power of Gautama's simple code that he forsook and forswore war and conquest and greed, and devoted his money and his influence to spreading the Gospel as he understood it. He sent missionaries into all parts of the civilized world, even to Persia and Greece and Rome. He gave millions to endow Buddha's religion and the consequences which have flowed from that piece of charity are simply incalculable.

One of the notable acts of charity which we find was the gift of Alexander the Great in the fourth century B. C. to found Alexandria University in northern Egypt. It was a library, in reality, which became a veritable storehouse for the wisdom and art and skills of the past. Scholars came from all parts of the then western world to consult its manuscripts and to exchange knowledge. Until it was destroyed by fire set by the fleet of Augustus Caesar this monument to Alexander's philanthropy was the center of the culture of the Mediterranean world.

The Christian era marked the influx of new tides of unselfish regard for the welfare of humanity. At the very center of Jesus' teaching was the concept of one's responsibility for others. He exhorted his followers to "love thy neighbor as thyself" and he specifically prescribed charity to a certain rich young man as the very act of his salvation: "If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor."

Salamon Reinach, brilliant French critic, who views the progress of mankind rather coolly and certainly dispassionately, says that our whole western civilization has been influenced by four central ideas of the Jewish and Christian religions far more than by the philosophy of Greece or the teachings of Aristotle. Of these four ideas, which he calls "the foremost educative force in Europe," one is charity.

The Jews, since Christ, have also shown a sustained devotion to charity and philanthropy. They are no less generous than are the Christians of our nation. They have maintained their race-old tradition in this respect. Their great postbiblical seer and prophet Maimonides codified their charitable duties in 1204 A. D. in what he termed the Eight Degrees of Charity as follows:

1. This is the case of him who gives reluctantly.
2. This is the case of him who gives less than is proper but in a pleasant manner.
3. This is the case of him who gives after he is asked.
4. Less than this is the case of him who gives without being asked.
5. This is the case where the poor man knows from whom he takes but the giver does not know the receiver. An example of this is the practice of the wise who used to wrap up money in their cloaks and cast the bundles back of them (without looking), the poor coming afterward to pick them up, thus being spared all shame.

6. This is the case of the one who knows to whom he gives without the poor knowing from whom he receives. An example of this is the practice of distinguishing wise men who used to go secretly and leave money at the doors of the poor.

7. This is the case of one who gives charity to the poor, without knowing to whom he gives and without knowing from whom he takes.

8. Eighth degree, and which there is no higher, is that of one who takes hold of an Israelite who has become impoverished and gives him a gift or a loan or goes into partnership with him or finds work for him, in order to strengthen his hand so that he may be spared the necessity of appealing for help.

About 150 A. D., the Christians began to organize their charity work by creating in each church what they called a Church Fund. This was supported by voluntary gifts. Deacons dispensed funds to the needy.

Later districts or deaconries were organized. In each district was a hospital, an alms office, an orphanage, and a shelter for young babies. The hospital, or hotel, was not a hospital in our sense, but a place of hospitality for strangers. As the centuries passed, however, modern hospitals grew out of these early "Hotels".

In 321 A. D., Constantine gave license to give or bequeath money to the church and from that time on enormous endowments began to accumulate around these Christian charitable institutions.

The church institutions, centers of good works, crude as they were, proved to be the lighthouses of civilization in those stormy centuries of cruelty and ignorance. "All through the darkest period of the Middle Ages, through ferocity and fanaticism and brutality, we may trace the subduing influence of charity. Charitable habits, even when formed in the first instance from selfish motives, even when directed as to be positively injurious to the recipient, rarely fail to exercise a softening and purifying influence on character."

Two of our noblest modern institutions evolved slowly from these charities—the hospital and the university. The first documentary proof of a hospital is of one establishment at Caesarea in 369 A.D. by St. Basil. It was a veritable city, with pavilions for various diseases, residences for physicians, nurses, and convalescents. St. Gregory called it a "heaven on earth".

Following the Crusades, hospitals multiplied at an astonishing rate throughout all Europe and England.

H. G. Wells, in summing up in his Outline of History, the history and progress of the human race up to our day, pays this eloquent tribute to the "love for mankind" which we have been endeavoring to trace during the past four thousand years.

"It is only within the last three or at most four thousand years that we have any clear evidence that voluntary self-abandonment to some greater end, without fee or reward was an acceptable idea to men, or that anyone propounded it. Then we find spreading over the surface of human affairs, as patches of sunshine spread and pass over the hillsides on a windy day in spring, the idea that there is a happiness in self-devotion greater than any personal gratification or triumph, and a life of mankind different and greater and more important than the sum of all individual lives within it.

"We have seen that idea become vivid as a beacon, vivid as sunshine caught and reflected dazzlingly by some window in the landscape, in the teaching of Buddha, Lao Tse, and, most clearly of all, of Jesus of Nazareth. Through all its variations and corruptions, Christianity has never completely lost the suggestion of a devotion to God's commonwealth that makes the personal pomp of monarchs and rulers seem like the insolence of an overdressed servant and the splendors and gratifications of wealth like the waste of robbers. No man living in a community which such a religion as Judaism, Christianity or Islam has touched can be all together a slave; there is an ineradicable quality to these religions that compels men to judge their masters and to realize their own responsibility for the world."

The generous merchants of London and of other large cities in England soon realize that alms alone could not cure the deepseated evils of poverty and they began to make still larger gifts to education. In that period they established and endowed numerous schools, and also founded and endowed colleges at the universities.

These generous philanthropists developed the charitable trust as the major instrument of their gifts and bequests. These English charities formed the shape of the modern world, and moved on to America and through colonial life.

Fund-raising methods were improvised by resourceful men of each generation through the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries. Benjamin Franklin, prominent Mason, was one of the most successful and creative fund-raisers of that period. He would prepare a list of special prospects for each cause and then call personally upon each prospect. He raised funds to found a college (University of Pennsylvania), a hospital (Pennsylvania), America's first free library, a Presbyterian Church, a volunteer fire department and many other non-profit agencies and institutions.

Churches of the 1890's were using the oyster supper, the Sunday collection plate, cake sales, sociables, "poundings" or showers".

But giving in America has increased far more in the 20th century than has our population.

We now give a total of about $8,000,000,000 to our religious, educational, health, social service, character-building and cultural agencies, according to the American Association of Fund-Raising Counsel.

Today's generosity is at the rate of $43.96 for each man, woman and child in America. In the 50-year period, 1910-1960, the American people gave to their philanthropic agencies $123,970,000,000. This is $15 billion more than the total accumulated invested capital of America's 500 largest industrial corporations, combined.

It is $40 billion more than the combined deposits of the 50 largest banks in America.

The total valuation of the property and endowments of our religious and educational and welfare agencies is $48,000,000,000. This is $1,781,140,000 more than the invested capital of our 50 largest railroads and airlines, and 50 largest utilities combined. This is charity in America today. This is how we got such a charitable heritage.

Sometimes I think that we are going to spend ourselves out of existence in the name of charity.

I know that there are times when what we give winds up in the hands of those who may not need it, or at best, not willing to help themselves. But I suppose if there is anyone who will be "tried in the balance and found wanting" for this offense, it will be the receiver and not the giver.

This is why I believe that there are going to be an awful lot of Freemasons in Heaven when the Judgment Day comes. For Freemasons are among the most charitable people on the face of the earth. They have learned their lesson well.

Now, what is Freemasonry?

It's a cup of cold water to the thirsty. It's a bowl of chicken soup to the hungry and the sick. It's a smile to the stranger. It's a word of sympathy to the distressed.

Let's take one more look at the yardstick and see how we measure up as individual Masons. What are the questions?

Did you: Give the thirsty a drink? Feed the hungry? Care for the orphan and the widow? Bind up the wounds of the afflicted? Clothe the ragged? Greet the stranger? Visit the sick? Care for the outcast?

If we could answer all of these questions "yes", just think what a glorious world we would have. None would be hungry in this land of plenty where we actually pay farmers not to grow crops. No home would be cold in winter. No one would live in rat-infested shacks. The sick and the aged would be cared for. None would live in fear.

The untrained and undereducated would be trained until they could make a living and hold their heads high with dignity and know the joy of work.

These are my standards that I try to live by. This is the yardstick that I use to measure myself. I don't score very high—but it serves as a constant reminder to spur me on to do better.

In the 25th Chapter of St. Matthew, we are given some insight in what to expect by a description of the last judgment: "When the Son of Man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory. And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. And he shall set the sheep on his hand but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand. Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

For I was an hungered and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. And the King shall answer and say unto them, verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

My brethren, this is Freemasonry. This is our obligation. This is our salvation. This is our challenge.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE

(Docket No. 40)

The following report of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence was read by M. W. Edward Burrier, P. G. M. and the recommendation of the committee on each section was adopted, rejected or carried over to the next Annual Communication in 1972. The report was then adopted as a whole:

DISPENSATIONS

We approve the action of the Grand Master in granting the dispensations as reported by him under this title. We recommend that the Grand Lodge approve each of them as reported by him.

OFFICIAL OPINIONS

In his report the Grand Master lists four Opinions, on each of which we recommend approval.

UNOFFICIAL OPINIONS

The Grand Master issued one Unofficial Opinion during the year. This committee is not required to act on this opinion, but we do commend the manner of handling by the Grand Master.

ORDERS

The Grand Master issued six Orders during the year. Since all orders represent matters within The Code, rather than interpretations of The Code, it is the committee's feeling that each should obviously be approved, and we so recommend.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF GRAND MASTER

My brethren, this has been a year of a Grand, Grand Master, a man whose heart has been full of love and who has honestly endeavored to arrive at a grand leveling point and in which he has been magnificently successful. What a pleasure it has been for each of us to have been associated with this great man, Mason and Brother. I once heard a great Grand Master of another state explain that he had no opinions or decisions due to the fact that he found all men love and respect each other, seeking through Masonry that Grand Leveling Point. This great Grand Master is following exactly that course and, in consequence, for what went into his supplemental report only those of us close to him know the agony, the sufference and the perseverance and the love of his fellow man that went into the amicable solutions of what could have been problems of immense magnitude.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CODE

The following proposed amendments to The Code were presented at the Annual Communication on April 21-22, 1970, and now come before the Grand Lodge for consideration:

Amend Regulation 21-01 by adding subsection (3) and (3A) to read as follows:

3. No subordinate lodge shall hold a stated or emergent communication on a day that the Grand Lodge is in session during its Annual Communication; except for the purpose of conducting a Masonic funeral.
 - A. Should a stated communication of a subordinate lodge fall on any of the days Grand Lodge is holding its Annual Communication, the lodge may hold the said stated communication on the night of the day immediately following the close of Grand Lodge.

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence recommends rejection of the above proposed amendment. (Adopted)
Repeal Regulation 76-26 in its entirety and substitute a new Regulation 76-26 to read as follows:

REGULATION 76-26: Collective balloting is permissible. Any number of petitions or applications shall be balloted on collectively. If the ballot is negative, then each petition or application shall be balloted on separately.

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence recommends rejection of the above proposed amendment. (Adopted)
Amend Regulation 79-03 by adding subsection (1) to read as follows:

1. Each member being Raised to the Sublime Degree of Master Mason shall be required to pass the proficiency examination on the Catechism of the Third Degree within a period not to exceed six months after being so Raised. Dues shall not start until the brother has passed proficiency and the membership card shall not be issued prior thereto. During this period, the brother may attend meetings and participate in discussion, but shall not have the right to vote, nor shall he be allowed to recommend candidates for the degrees. Should a Master Mason fail to present himself prepared for examination within six months, he shall be in default and a nonaffiliated Mason and shall have no rights except to apply for restoration to membership as provided in Regulation 81-07 of THE CODE. (60-01; 82-10).

A letter from the proposer of the above proposed amendment requesting the withdrawal of the amendment was read and the Committee recommends the withdrawal. (On vote the proposed amendment was withdrawn).

Regulation 74-01 (15A) shall, therefore, read as follows:

- A. If separation from the Armed Forces was under either of the above classifications, satisfactory evidence must be submitted to verify that the discharge has been changed by legal authority to at least a General Discharge, or that he has been issued an Exemplary Rehabilitation Certificate by the Secretary of Labor.

The Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence recommends rejection of the above proposed amendment. (Adopted)

Each of the 15 of us who was privileged to serve on this distinguished committee is the richer for the association with the Grand Master and with each other.

Respectfully submitted,
W. EDWARD BURRIER, Chairman

The Budget for the year ending April 30, 1971 has been carefully examined and we are happy to report that the expenditures are in keeping with our budget, however, an audit has not been made as of this time, since our year ends on April 30, 1971, but a copy of the audit will be printed in the Proceedings for your information.

We have consulted with the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Masonic Foundation, Inc. and can report they have transferred to the Oxford Orphanage and Masonic and Eastern Star Home $38,000.00 each during this past fiscal year. We recommend the income from the Foundation continue to be contributed direct to the Oxford Orphanage and the Masonic and Eastern Star Home. We have budgeted enough money from the General Fund of the Grand Lodge to insure each institution shall receive a minimum of $50,000.00 during the coming fiscal year.

We recommend the Grand Master and the Chairman of the Committee on Finance scrutinize the General Fund in May authorizing the surplus funds, in their discretion, be transferred to the capital investment of the Foundation.

We recommend the Grand Master have authority, when he deems it advisable for the best interest of the Grand Lodge, to suspend the allotment made to any committee, activity, or agency of the Grand Lodge.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO RALEIGH

(Docket No. 42)

To that part of America where the cold, refreshing, life-giving waters of the Labrador current meet and become wedded to the balmy ever spring-like atmosphere of the world appreciated, Gulf stream current, where the glorious and majestic mountains of mid-America soften and mellow into the beautiful sand and life-giving, nutritious, countryside of the stalwart Atlantic, where the noble pine tree of North America meets the pleasant palmetto and the Spanish moss of the land of gracious living, then truly the capital of such a favored land must be unsurpassable and North Carolinians, knowing the favors and blessings that are there, are so anxious to share these God-given graces with others that are not so fortunate such as my friends from the nothern climes who have left the snows to be with us. Hence, it is but natural that most of the 184 Annual Communications of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina should be planned for this spot of hospitality that has so long been known to so many for its warmth of welcome and its showing of its welcome many, many times. To the great city of Raleigh, which has greeted us so warmly, but never more so than in 1971, and that warmth of greeting is always so great that it always adds as it does this time, "and please come back soon". From the banjo playing of the Executives the other night to the last extra little note, a thank you to Jack Honeycutt, Frank Maddry, Harry Holland, Otto Neustadt and your dedicated group of workers. None of them have ever performed more magnificently and never have we, your guests, been more appreciative. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEMOLAY

(Docket No. 43)

The following report of the Committee on DeMolay was read, received and entered on the record.

To the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of North Carolina:

I am sorry to report that DeMolay has lost more Chapters and Members this past year than it has Instituted and Initiated. We lost 11 Chapters through inactivity and only Instituted 5 Chapters.

Most of these Chapters were lost due to a shortage of dedicated Advisors. Every Chapter of DeMolay in North Carolina needs more Advisors. Some Chapters have only one active Advisor and if he is sick or out of town for some reason, the Chapter cannot meet.

During the past year we had a loss of 130 Members over the State. This is not good but it is not too bad in view of the loss of 6 Chapters. Most were lost by reaching the age of 21. A number of these have already Petitioned for the Degrees of Masonry.

On November 1, 1970, we were fortunate to have Gary Lukovich of Goodall, Michigan, The International Master Councilor, Order of DeMolay, visit the DeMolays in North Carolina. He was accompanied by Dan Killian of the Sylva Chapter. Dan at that time was the immediate Past International Master Councilor. Gary and Dan visited VA Hospital, Oteen, N. C., in the morning to observe and participate in the Chapel Escort Program with 85 DeMolays from North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. After lunch Gary spoke at an open meeting to the DeMolays, Masons and other interested persons. With Gary Lukovich and Dan Killian as examples of the Young Men that DeMolay offers, our Country will be in good hands.

On March 31st, April 1st and 2nd, 1971, the 25th Anniversary Conference of the Veterans Administration Volunteer Services was held in Washington, D. C., this is the first time the youth have had a chance to participate in the Annual Conference. Of the five youths selected from the VA Hospital, Oteen, N. C., three were DeMolays, all of these Young Men are volunteers at the hospital. I was so proud to introduce them as our DeMolays from North Carolina; they impressed everyone with their dress, manners, politeness and knowledge of the various programs. They were a credit to DeMolay, Masonry and North Carolina—we all have reason to be proud of these Young Men. Just think how many more Young Men like these we could have with more Advisors.

This is our Organization for building the kind of Young Men and Adults we need in order for our Country to advance and prosper. In today's world, there are too many distractions aimed at the Youth. We cannot afford to lose one Chapter of DeMolay or for that matter, even one boy that can help lead our Country in the future. Not only our Country, but the future of Masonry may well rest in the hands of these Young Men. Think how much better it will be with men already trained in the teachings of DeMolay to lead than for untrained hands to have the helm.

The good that DeMolay can do for the Youth of today and for our Country and Masonry is unlimited with the proper guidance. DeMolay needs and solicits the support and counsel of every Mason.

Respectfully submitted,
PAUL C. SHERWOOD, Chairman

GRAND MASTER MAURICE E. WALSH

On the evening of Wednesday, April 22, 1970, in the civic center of Durham, North Carolina, our Grand Master was installed in that august position to begin a year of activity in behalf of Freemasonry in North Carolina. After the installation had been concluded, the Grand Master then proceeded to give an expression of his hopes and aspirations for Masonry during the ensuing year. At that time, he pledged himself to a continuation of the programs as had been put forth by his worthy predecessors; namely, the support of our two wonderful institutions: The Masonic and Eastern Star Home and the Orphanage at Oxford. He pledged himself, also, to the support of our youth orders, of the DeMolay for boys and of the Rainbow for girls. He also emphasized his enthusiasm for a continuation of the Celebration of Saint John's Day, as well as the support of our public schools. He called for a re-dedication of our lives to God and to our Country; he asked that we stand for law and order and that we support our public elected officials at all levels of Government by standing up and speaking out on the vital issues of the day.

His chief, and most important declaration, at that time, however, was an enunciation of a new program for Masons in North Carolina, a new program of Masonic Education which he hoped would ultimately find its way into every Blue Lodge in North Carolina and which he likewise hoped would be the beginning of an educational program which would provide the interest, the enthusiasm, and the re-dedication of Masonic lives to the brethren in our great State. This education program had been jointly planned, and had become the dedicated obligation of his predecessor, as well as the Deputy Grand Master, and the Senior and the Junior Grand Wardens, each of whom had expressed a deep interest in the educational program to serve as the long, hoped-for program that would increase interest and attendance in the Masonic Blue Lodges in North Carolina.

To the implementation of this program, the Grand Master dedicated himself, his talents and his time with a degree of dedication that has been most commendable. He conducted his area Conferences, his District Conferences; he authorized and assisted in the operation of District Workshops, all of which were designed to place an emphasis on Masonic Education and which, he fervently hoped, would reach every Mason in the State. The leadership which he gave to this program has been most inspiring and it has attracted attention from other Grand Lodges in the United States. As a result of the accomplishments in the area of Masonic Education in North Carolina, our Grand Master has been invited by several other Grand Lodges and several other Masonic Organizations to relate to them just exactly what has taken place in North Carolina and what the Educational Program has meant to the Lodges in North Carolina. At the Grand Masters Conference in Washington, D. C., in February, 1971, he was called upon to explain and to describe to all of the Grand Masters and other Grand Lodge Officers from all over the World, the Program of Masonic Education as it had been implemented in North Carolina. As you might expect.

our Grand Master gave a very glowing description of the Program which was received with marked enthusiasm. North Carolina would, indeed, have been proud of the manner in which the Grand Master so ably represented the Masons of this State.

It would be difficult, indeed, to enumerate those experiences which have been most outstanding in his year of service as Grand Master but certainly a true and accurate account of the history of this period must list as his most outstanding achievement the successful manner in which he instituted the Masonic Educational Program in North Carolina. This outstanding achievement will certainly be given top priority in any resume of his year because this particular activity reflects his keen interest in Masonry "out in the field where Grand Masters seldom visit." His burning desire was to formulate such a program that Lodges in the most remote areas of North Carolina would be benefited by it and would thereby be inspired to new heights of activity and interest.

He has accepted many invitations from Blue Lodges to visit them during the year and their expressions of appreciation for this service give ample indication of the fact that this is an area of service that could well be emphasized by every Grand Master. It is a most happy reflection upon the Masonic character of our Grand Master that he desired to implement this need.

An so it is that the Masons of North Carolina have many reasons to be proud of the achievements of this year; to be proud of the capable leadership which our Grand Master has given; to be proud of the magnificent direction he has given to the Masonic program throughout the State; to be proud of the commendable direction he has given to the progress of Masonry throughout our Grand Jurisdiction. Certainly Masonry in North Carolina is in a much healthier condition, and can look forward with a greater degree of assurance and confidence to more progress in the future, because of the magnificent attention which our Grand Master has given to the cause of Freemasonry.

Now that we have reached the period of our Masonic year when the mantle of responsibility as Grand Master is about to be transferred to the shoulders of another, we look with gratitude upon the events, the achievements, and the highlights which have made this year in North Carolina such an outstanding one.

Grand Master Walsh has been completely unselfish in his desire to serve the Craft; he has forgotten himself whenever the call to serve came to him. His primary concern and his greatest responsibility were concentrated in a sincere and dynamic effort to place the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in a position of pre-eminence and, through his emphasis upon a revolutionary Masonic Education Program, it can be safely said that he has succeeded in this respect in a magnificent manner. Surely the moment that he dedicated himself to this task last April in Durham was a significant moment for the cause of Freemasonry in North Carolina.

When our Grand Master ascended to the exalted station he carried with him a vast reservoir of Masonic experiences, because he had been active in many branches of Masonry for many years and in all of those experiences he accumulated a tremendous amount of Masonic knowledge and wisdom and he gained a keen understanding of the inner workings of the various activities which are responsible for the over all operation and functioning of Masonry in North Carolina. He, himself, would be the first to admit that he has been particularly blessed during his year as Grand Master by virtue of his all-encompassing experiences in the field of Masonry. It is perhaps true that these treasured experiences not only made his year as Grand Master a much easier and a more pleasant one, but they have also made it possible for him to conduct the affairs of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in a most efficient and effective manner and in so doing, he added luster to the good name of Masonry in this great State.

He has worked hard. He dedicated his talents to the cause of Freemasonry and he served the craft well. Because of the magnificent contribution he made to the elevation of the cause of Masonry in North Carolina, we salute him with a grateful expression of approval and appreciation and we unite our voices in hearty approbation. We pray most earnestly that the Supreme Grand Master will bless and keep him; that he will make his face to shine upon him and be gracious unto him; that he will lift up his countenance upon him and give him peace, both now, and forevermore.

INSTALLATION REMARKS OF
M. W. BROTHER WILLIAM WATSON MIMS, JR.
Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina

To those of you attending this Installation, I want to thank each and every one of you. To the members of my lodge who made the trip to fill the stations, thank you. To Pete Dudley, thank you so much for your help. To Most Worshipful Brother Robert Pugh, thank you. To my Masonic grandfather, Jimmy, thanks to you for taking part in this Installation Ceremony. Ed, you know how I feel about you. I say again, thank you for coming.

I had better not forget this. My wife and daughter, Nellene and Susan, are sitting over there. Would you please stand? (Applause). Thank you so much, my brethren, my friends, and ladies, I appreciate so much your being here.

For those who are not familiar with some of the terms I have used, I was calling M. W. Brother Johnston my Masonic grandfather and M. W. Brother Burrier my Masonic father. Jimmy Johnston was appointed in the line of the Grand Lodge some few years ago by our most distinguished and beloved brother, the late Herbert Foy. Brother Johnston served his tenure—he did it well. He appointed in this Grand Lodge Line my good friend, Brother Ed Burrier. Now this is the result of what has transpired and you are left with me. I love and appreciate them both.

I will say to you that I have a man sitting on my right in whom I can put every confidence. In fact, all of the Grand Lodge Officers are well-qualified for their stations and places and I am well pleased with them. I know we will have a successful year. If we don't it will be my fault. I pledge to the Masons of North Carolina my undivided attention to the office of Grand Master and the affairs of our Grand Lodge.

PRESENTATION OF PAST GRAND MASTER'S JEWEL TO M. W. MAURICE ELLEDGE WALSH

Most Worshipful Brother Maurice, I now present you what might be termed as a diploma, since this is your graduation day. In token of your dedicated service to the Grand Lodge, it is my pleasure to present you this Past Grand Master's collar and jewel, which I know you will wear with honor to the Fraternity. As your Masonic daddy, may I say that I am proud of you, son.

REVIEWS

— OF —

JAMES G. JOHNSTON, P.G.M.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

FOREWORD

It has been our extreme pleasure once more to review the Proceedings of many of the Grand Lodges with which our Grand Lodge is in amity. This duty, though tedious and at times laborious, carries with it the edifying joy of visiting, through their printed pages, the Annual Communications of these Grand Lodges and to share with them the joys of successful operations and, alas! to despair with them when aspirations are not accomplished or when dreams are shattered by failure of one sort or another.

This Foreword and the accompanying Reviews will in all probability be the last to appear in the appendix of our Proceedings for now we move our Reviews to the monthly columns of the readable North Carolina Mason, the official publication of our Grand Lodge. 'Tis a wise move, we think, as the cost of printing will be less and the reader exposure broadened immensely.

With this farewell in our Foreword we now turn to our Annual Report submitted to our Grand Lodge at its 1971 Annual Communication. In that report we related the fact that we had been notified by letter from the Grand Secretary of the United Grand Lodge of England that his Grand Lodge had on March 10, 1971 withdrawn fraternal recognition from the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland for failing to conform with the Basic Principles of Freemasonry. This letter having been received by us only a matter of days prior to the Annual Communication of our Grand Lodge left us with no time in which to investigate the cause of the action taken by the United Grand Lodge of England and we so reported to our Grand Lodge.

Subsequently, we received through the office of our Grand Secretary a copy of a letter from the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland accompanied by a Declaration of Policy of the Committee of Grand Lodge Officers of the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland, and approved unanimously by the Assembly of Delegates on 8 May 1971 in Berne.

We are quite happy to quote below R.'W.'Jomini's letter and the Declaration of Policy in the hope that by this action we remove some of the doubt created by our Mother Grand Lodge's action of March 10. We hasten to say that it is not our desire to enter into controversy with our Brethren but it would appear to us that this statement of Policy removes all doubt as to Grand Lodge Alpina's Masonic regularity.

Unless we are able to secure further evidence of Masonic irregularities practiced by the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland, it is not our purpose to recommend to our Grand Lodge that it withdraw fraternal recognition from the Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland.

JAMES G. JOHNSTON, P.G.M., Chairman

The letter from R.'W.'Brother Jomini and the statement of Policy follow herewith.

Mr. Charles A. Harris, P.G.M.

Grand Secretary,

THE GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
P. O. Box 6506, Raleigh, N. C., 27608—U.S.A.

Dear Sir and Brother,

I have been directed to inform you that on the occasion of our Annual Grand Lodge Meeting holden in Berne on 8th May 1971, a resolution regarding the policy of our Grand Lodge has been taken. This resolution has been passed unanimously and we deem it to be of such importance that I have been directed to communicate to you the texts in French, German and English. Allow me to say that the French text is binding because it is inevitable that there may be some slight divergencies between the three languages.

We firmly believe that the unanimous vote of the Assembly held on 8th May 1971 should more than amply prove that our Grand Lodge represents a pillar of Regular Continental Masonry and we can but hope that our action and behaviour will be understood and interpreted in its proper sense.

Yours sincerely and fraternally

The Grand Chancellor:

Gilbert E. JOMINI

Annual General Meeting of Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland held in Berne on 8th May, 1971—Point 10

DECLARATION OF POLICY OF THE COMMITTEE OF GRAND LODGE OFFICERS, approved unanimously by the Assembly of the Delegates on 8th May, 1971 in Berne.

The internal circular letter No. R/2255-F of 24th September, 1970 addressed to the Reigning Masters and Deputy Masters has obviously been misunderstood or wrongly interpreted in many places. We therefore wish to stress and to emphasize again most strongly that the Committee of Grand Lodge Officers expects the Lodges as well as all individual Brethren to implicitly adhere to the Masonic Principles as laid down in our Constitution and to the strictest observance of all Grand Lodge decisions. In particular contacts such as ritualistic work in our temples etc. with any kind of pseudo-masonic and para-masonic bodies, even if they promote or pretend to promote masonic ideas, without, however, being under the control or direction of a Grand Lodge which has been recognized by us, must be most uncompromisingly avoided.

The assembly of delegates in an unanimous vote of confidence to the Directorate and to the Committee of Grand Lodge Officers renews by a special decision its adherence to the following basic masonic principles:

1. The Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland is sovereign and not dependant on any other Masonic Obedience. The Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland works within the limits set by the so-called "Antient Charges of 1723".
2. The individual Lodges are being governed exclusively by Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland to which jurisdiction they belong; any interference by other masonic obediences being strictly excluded.
3. Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland as well as its Lodges work exclusively the Masonry of St. John in the three degrees of Apprentice, Fellowcraft and Master Mason.
4. Grand Lodge Alpina of Switzerland and its Lodges work in the name of the Great Architect of the Universe. During all Ritual Work the three great Lights, viz. the Volumn of the Sacred Law, the Square and Compasses are placed on the altar.

Lodges 169. Members 25,704. Net Loss 348.

The Ninety-Ninth Annual Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M., of British Columbia was held at Prince George on Thursday, June 18, 1970. The Grand Lodge was opened in Ample Form by M. W. Wallace McRae. A full complement of officers, Past Grand Masters (9) and Past District Deputy Grand Masters were present.

Distinguished guests from the Grand Lodges of Alberta, California, Saskatchewan, Washington and Oregon were warmly welcomed, given Grand Honors and escorted to the Grand East.

Grand Master McRae appointed a Committee, consisting of the immediate Past Grand Master and all elective officers of the Grand Lodge which he elected to call the "Grand Master's Consulting Committee". The Committee met twice and the Grand Master reported that the advice and counsel of the Committee proved invaluable. Additionally, this reviewer would compliment the Grand Master for giving his officers this opportunity to become more familiar with the office and duties of the Grand Master.

General Fund receipts amounted to $60,076.59 from all sources while disbursements (actual) amounted to $55,652.39, as opposed to estimated expenses of $60,700.00.

The report of the Committee on the D.D.G.M.'s Reports indicated complete satisfaction with the state of the craft as reflected in the reports of all 26 D.D.G.M.'s. All D.D.G.M.'s were given the Rank and Title of "Right Worshipful", and were highly complimented for the fine manner in which they had performed in their several Districts.

A detailed and exhaustive report of the Committee on Proposed Masonic Home or Homes concluded that construction and operation of Masonic Home or Homes is feasible, provided seven specified conditions were met and not otherwise. The Committee's report strongly recommended the continuation of the present method of assistance—that initiated by the subordinate Lodge concerned, and supported by the Grand Lodge when necessary.

A Finance Committee report placed operating costs at $63,100.00 for the ensuing year.

M. W. Micholes Mussalem was elected and installed Grand Master, and the Grand Lodge closed in Ample Form on Friday, June 19, 1970.

The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of California met in its 121st Annual Communication in San Francisco on Monday, October 12-16, 1970, Most Worshipful Chester R. MacPhee, presiding. A full complement of officers and 15 Past Grand Masters were present.

The Grand Masters of 12 other Grand Lodges and many other distinguished Masons of other Grand Jurisdictions were also present, recognized and honored.

In discussing drop-outs and attempting to answer why candidates fail to finish work Grand Master MacPhee reported wide and enthusiastic interest in the new Grand Lodge pamphlet, "Freemasonry—Does It Concern Me?", used primarily to explain Freemasonry to the new Entered Apprentice Mason's wife or mother. Inquiries from practically every state in the union have necessitated reprint of this particular pamphlet. During the year Masonic Information—Masonic Education—Masonic Responsibility were taken to the Constituent Lodges through more than 50 workshops held in various parts of California and Hawaii.

Other Grand Lodge pamphlets commanding wide interest included a new four page, "Grand Master's Bulletin", a revision of the leaflet, "From a Rough to a Perfect Ashlar" and a pamphlet which was inspired by the Pennsylvania and Texas Grand Lodge pamphlets entitled "Freemasonry—A Way of Life".

The Grand Master's report was concise, and, in its coverage of the affairs and problems of Grand Lodge, complete. He placed 10 Recommendations before the Grand Lodge for its consideration, issued 4 Proclamations, and attended an untold number of Masonic functions. He had, indeed, a busy and profitable year as Grand Master.

Cash receipts from all sources amounted to $7,068,459.00. Total disbursements, other than capital outlays amounted to $4,485,806.00.

Residents at Union City Masonic Home on June 30, 1970 were 347, including 30 married couples. There were 144 men and 203 women, ranging in age from 60 to 105 years. At Covina there were 49 children—18 girls and 31 boys. A redevelopment program at Covina was completed on August 3, 1970 at a final contract cost of $765,787.67. Step 11 in the redevelopment program at Covina is nearing completion at an expected cost of $285,000. Step 111 is yet to be undertaken.

A request for recognition of its regularity was received from the Grand Lodge of Haiti. Pending further study action on this request was postponed to a further communication of Grand Lodge.

One new Lodge was chartered—Kern River Valley Lodge No. 827.

A 1970-71 operating budget was set at $603,450.00 vs an anticipated income of $600,684.00.

M. W. Herbert A. Huebner was elected and installed Grand Master.

All were presented and recognized after the ancient manner, as were 15 distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions.

Eight Special Communications were held—6 for laying cornerstones, 1 for placing a memorial stone, and 1 for the purpose of dedicating a new Lodge Hall.

Grand Master Gobin laid 10 Recommendations before the Grand Lodge for its consideration and made 3 Proclamations.

Grand Lodge receipt of funds from all sources amounted to $161,980.53. The Grand Treasurer reported that the projected cost of operating the Grand Lodge during 1969 did not permit the reservation of funds for Disaster or Contingencies, but hopefully this situation will be cured in 1970 when increased per capita funds will become available for these purposes.

No new lodges were formed in 1969.

The Grand Lodges of Southern Africa and Goias, the latter of Brazil, were given recognition of their regularity. Action on similar requests from the Grand Lodge of Iran and the Grande Loga de Piaui, Brazil, was deferred until the next annual communication.

The One Hundred Eighty-Second Annual Communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M., was held in the Capitol

Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel, Hartford on Wednesday, April 1, 1970, Grand Master, William F. Booth, presiding.

Distinguished guests from 14 other Grand Jurisdictions were present and received after the ancient manner.

One Emergent Communication was held. On March 14, 1970 the Grand Lodge met to lay the cornerstone of the new Grand Lodge office building in Wallingford.

The Grand Master recommended that the Table Lodge program, which began in Connecticut in 1964, be continued and expanded much further. He reported that this type of program is becoming more meaningful and more interesting.

The Grand Lodge office was moved from Hartford to a handsome new building in Wallingford in June 1970.

The first phase of building, renovating, and equipping the Masonic Home and Hospital has gotten underway. When completed this program is expected to cost $8,500,000.00. On January 1, 1970, there were 371 residents and patients in the Home and Hospital. Five men, 5 women, 1 boy and 4 girls were being cared for outside these institutions.

The Masonic Culture and Public Relations Committee gave an interesting report. Among other things the Committee reported that it had held two Seminars—one on April 19, 1969 for constituent lodge Senior Wardens. One hundred of the 136 Wardens attended this successful and well-rounded program. Again, on November 29, 1969, a Junior Warden's Seminar was held. The Grand Master excused 12 Wardens, 106 attended and 17 did not answer the summons. Another unique experiment was carried through on June 21, 1969, when 24 Brothers of District 4, who were Raised after January 1, assembled to hear a series of 10 minute talks especially selected for newly Raised Master Masons, the intent being to orient the Lodge in the new Master Mason's mind. This program was highly recommended for extensive study by ensuing committeemen.

The program of this Committee had many other interesting facets.

The Grand Lodge of Iran was given formal recognition of its regularity.

Most Worshipful Grand Master Carl O. Carlson and his officers were installed and the Grand Lodge closed. J. G. J.

The One Hundred and Eighty-Third Annual Communication was held in Macon on October 28 and 29. M. W. Durwood B. Mercer, Grand Master, presiding.

Distinguished guests from 16 other Grand Jurisdictions and 11 Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Georgia were received and welcomed. Leaders of the Scottish and York Rites in Georgia were received and welcomed also.

A fitting tribute and memorial to R. W. Brother Walton Usher, Deputy Grand Master, who died on February 1, 1969 was held under the direction of M. W. D. Warner Wells, P.G.M.

Nine Emergent Communications were held during the year—4 for laying cornerstones, 2 for constituting new Lodges, 1 to conduct the funeral services for R. W. Jesse Walton Usher, and 2 to install Grand Lodge officers.

Past Grand Masters Otis Eugene Dixon and Joseph Henry Wilkinson, also passed away during the year. Brother Dixon on April 9, and Brother Wilkinson on March 14. We mourn their passing.

Grand Master Mercer laid 9 recommendations before the Grand Lodge for its consideration. One of these was the establishment in this Grand Orient of a District Deputy Grand Master system. He reported that he had found a great need to have in each District a representative with clearly defined duties and responsibility, as well as authority, who is answerable to the Grand Master. (The Georgia Masonic Code was amended to provide such a system.)

The Grand Master placed great emphasis upon, and exerted great effort to promote, a well-planned program of Masonic Education throughout his Grand Jurisdiction.

General Fund operating revenues were $285,817.60 whereas disbursements amounted to $296,151.71.

The Grand Lodges of Iran, Luxumbourg, Rio Grande Do Sol, Brazil, and Dominicana were given formal recognition of their regularity. A late request from the Grand Lodge of the State of Guanabara, Brazil, came in too late for processing and no action was recommended or taken.

The Fraternal Correspondent wisely declined to act upon a request contained in a letter from the "Inter-American Masonic Conference anent recognition of the Grand Lodge of Cuba by the Grand Lodges of Florida and New Jersey. Brother Callaway, Fraternal Correspondent, justly stated that the Grand Lodge of Georgia had no right to "meddle" in the sovereign affairs of the Grand Lodges of Florida and New Jersey. We further commend W. Brother Callaway on his treatment of the subject of "Roman Catholicism and Freemasonry" and his concluding remarks contained therein.

W. Brother Callaway's departing remarks in his report sadden us. We deplore his departure from the printed pages of Sovereign Georgia's Grand Lodge Proceedings. But, Dear Walt, why should we be sad? The exigencies of fate enmesh us. We, too, leave the printed pages of our Proceedings with this, the Proceedings for the year 1971. Henceforth, we go for monthly inclusion in the readable "North Carolina Mason", the now official periodical of our Grand Lodge.

In the Home, there were 85 children, 44 girls and 41 boys.

An act to amend the Masonic Manual and Code to change dues to E.A. & F.C. Masons was rejected.

Burton A. Greer, Atlanta was elected and installed Grand Master. J. G. J.

He also recommended that Annual Communication be reduced from 3 to 2 days. The former was approved and the latter was disapproved by the Committee on Jurisprudence.

Average annual dues of constituent Lodges is $11.51. Forty-six Lodges charge dues above this average and 36 charge dues below this average. Five Lodges charge $6.00 and 1 Lodge charges $18.00 dues.

R. W. Harold E. McBeth, Senior Grand Warden, and R. W. Walter G. Pyrah, Junior Grand Warden, for reasons of health, could not continue in the Grand Lodge line of officers and regretfully asked that they not be continued. Accordingly M. W. Russell C. Knoff, Junior Grand Deacon was elected Senior Grand Warden. Gayle L. McAtee and Gifford A. Shaffer were re-elected Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary, respectively.

Thirteenth Annual Communication held March 13-14, 1970, R. W. Yoshio Yamada, Deputy Grand Master, presiding M. W. Floyd Jackson Robertson, Grand Master, was hospitalized in Zama, Japan, and sent a message of regret that he could not attend this Annual Communication of his Grand Lodge. Before illness beset him, however, the Grand Master completed his report in excellent style. As do most of us, when reporting on our year of stewardship, the Grand Master acknowledged that he had not accomplished all that he had hoped to accomplish, that he could recall plans that were not completely executed, hopes that were not fully realized, aspirations for usefulness that were still bright, but not entirely fulfilled. Alas! Most Worshipful Sir, what Grand Master has accomplished all he started out to do in his year in this honored post?

The Grand Treasurer reported that the Grand Lodge had a good year financially in fiscal 1969-70. Income slightly exceeded estimates while expenses were considerably less than budgeted.

On this the thirteenth anniversary year of the Grand Lodge the Grand Secretary reported twelve years of successive numerical growth.

The Grand Lodge gained fraternal recognition from the Grand Lodge of South Australia. The Grand Lodge of Japan, in turn, extended recognition to the Grand Lodges of Dominica, Piaui and Brasilia.

Five children, ages 4 to 16 years, were given remedial assistance during the year by the Masonic sight assistance program. Additionally, 4 more cases are pending: 3 children whose sight can be restored by cornea transplants when donors become available, and one child who requires brain surgery to relieve pressure on the optic nerve. The MSAP is experiencing difficulty in locating children who need its help even though government statistics show that such children exist in large numbers.

Lotteries in all forms and the sale of tickets for prizes were made illegal.

Two new Lodges were Consecrated and two new Lodges were Instituted. One Lodge was consolidated.

Grand Lodge income figures were $113,757.31 for the year, which were slightly exceeded by expenditures because of non-recurring expense items of $13,509.46. The budget for 1968-70 was set at $108,470.00.

Twenty-five Grand Lodge workshops were held in twenty-seven Districts. The 1970 workshops will be held in January with a program prepared by the 4 senior elective officers of the Grand Lodge.

A Standing Resolution was adopted to amend the Constitution to permit subordinate lodges to publish in written notices under sealed cover the names, addresses, ages, occupations, including recommending members names, of candidates for any degrees, after ballot by the lodges and acceptances by the petitioners.

A Grand Lodge Advisory Council of all Past Grand Masters and all Grand Lodge elective officers was created. The purpose: (1) To assist and advise the Grand Master and other Grand Lodge officers seeking counsel; (2) To give continuity and strength to Grand Lodge programs; and (3) To encourage and assist in presenting a clearer understanding of Masonry and its significance to Masons and others, thereby strengthening the Image of the Fraternity.

Roger I. White was elected and installed Grand Master. Next Annual Communication will be held in Bangor on May 4, 1971.

Recognition of the Grand Lodge of Iran was recommended and so moved.

The report of the Masonic Education Committee of Mexico shows that all Lodges have one thing in common—failing to apply the teachings of Masonry to our everyday life. There is a need for better leadership, more dedication and the better practice of our Masonic lessons as we work and play.

The 108th Annual Communication was closed in Ample Form at 6:30 P. M., March 14; Peace and Harmony prevailing.

The 104th Annual Communication was held in Lewiston on June 26-27, 1970. Grand Master Floyd P. Jenni, presided.

Three Special Communications were held—one on September 10, 1969 to conduct the funeral services of M. W. Francis Hagstrom, P.G.M., one on May 4, 1970 to conduct the funeral services of M. W. Charles Davidson, P.G.M., and one on June 13, 1970 to lay the cornerstone of Bigfork Lodge No. 150.

The Credentials Committee reported that 102 of the 141 Chartered Lodges were represented; that 12 Past Grand Masters and 22 distinguished guests from other Grand Jurisdictions were present. Total registration was 398.

Grand Master Jenni made Montana's first "Mason at sight" on January 15, 1970, one Richard E. Michels, an E. A. Mason who was ill and could not receive the Degrees in the normal manner. Brother Michels passed away on February 10, 1970, and received the Masonic committal service.

Of the 21,713 members on the roll at December 31, 1969, about 5%, or 1,083, held the enviable designation of 50-year members. Of 1,254 Brothers lost to membership, suspension, N. P. D. took 486 and death came to 613. Both are appalling when one considers that only 608 were Raised, Affiliated or Reinstated. This in a measure accounts for continuing losses in net membership—not only in this Grand Jurisdiction but in many others also. The aged pass on, the disinterested fall by the wayside and fewer young come to take their places.

General Fund receipt of funds amounted to $73,910.90. Expenditures of $67,199.08 left a Fund balance of $120,864.34.

An Americanism Program sponsored by the Grand Lodge was participated in by 113 of the 141 lodges during the month of January 1970. Total attendance at all observances was 8,395, a striking increase, not only in the number of those attending the observances but also in the number of constituent lodges participating. A state-wide program during 1970 was planned for which an appropriation of $500.00 was requested.

Dual membership in Montana Lodges was accepted in principle. The Committee on Jurisprudence asked for one year in which to prepare a new section of the Code of Statutes. Granted.

The trustees of the Masonic Home of Montana reported that monthly cost per guest is now $327.00 vs. $300.00 during the previous year and that infirmity cost had risen to an estimated monthly cost of $436.00. Overall expenses were up about $46,000.00 over the previous year. There were 51 guests in the Home on April 30, 1970.

M. W. Clarence E. Sportsman was elected Grand Master and he and his officers were installed.

An invitation to hold the 105th Annual Communication in Billings was accepted. That Annual Communication will begin June 25, 1971. J. G. J.

NEVADA—1969

The One Hundred and Fifth Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Nevada was held in Reno, Nevada on November 10th and 11th, 1969. The Communication was presided over by M. W. James A. Morrison, Grand Master.

All Grand Lodge officers were present except two who were excused by the Grand Master.

One point of interest in the oration by the Grand Orator was a question on Masonry and its symbolism that merits notation. He asked the brethren to explain the symbolism of the emblems and put to them a few pointed questions.

What does free Masonry stand for?

What is it doing today?

What has it ever done?

And the definition of Free Masonry was one of the highlights of his talk:

"Freemasonry is the activity of closely united men, who, employing symbolical forms borrowed principally from the mason's trade and from architecture, work for the welfare of mankind, striving morally to enable themselves and others, and thereby to bring about a universal league of mankind, which they aspire to exhibit even now on a small scale."

The Grand Lodge of Nevada was one of a few Grand Jurisdictions that ended 1969 with a gain over 1968. The total membership was 7,533 for a net gain of 94 members.

Installation of officers was held at 8:00 P. M. in the auditorium with the election of M. W. Embree D. Wilson, Grand Master.

Las Vegas was selected to be the sight of the 1970 Communication. L. H. G.

Twenty-five other Grand Lodge officers were present, also. Grand officers, past and/or present from Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Prince Edward Island, and Nova Scotia, were introduced and accorded Grand Honors.

Greetings were extended by W. Brother James E. Calvin, Mayor of the City of St. John.

Service of worship and thanksgiving was held. The devotional address was by the Grand Chaplain, Rev. Brother S. Raymond Jackson, whose topic was "The Chief Cornerstone."

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

In his report Grand Master Speight made this observation:

"In my months as your Grand Master—as well as in the years before this honour—I have heard the usual comments and concern regarding our declining membership and other problems. The decline in total membership, lack of attendance at Lodge meetings, and the apathy among many of our Brethren seems to give cause for concern, but these are not reasons to give up! Masonry has had recessions in the past and has always bounced back stronger than before. There is no question in my mind that a majority of our causes for concern would vanish if each one of us as individual Masons would resolve to participate more actively in the affairs of our Mother Lodges, discard our pessimistic views and do a little optimistic, positive thinking and acting for the Craft. Our initiation into Freemasonry teaches us that it is founded on stability, justness, and uprightness of character. We, as Masons and members of society, demonstrate stability by the degree of responsibility with which we accept our tasks of life, our justness and uprightness by the honesty and fairness with which we treat our fellow man, and by the honesty and fairness with ourselves. Brethren, each task given us from our initiation, through our stewardship and offices in the Lodge is of importance, and it is the way in which we accept these tasks that make us worthy of being called Masons. Let us each resolve, then, to realize our responsibilities, renew our determination to keep strong this greatest Fraternity on earth, and above all let us exemplify always the true spirit of Brotherhood."

The Grand Treasurer reported receipts of funds of $14,351.42.

A ceremony of installation for the Grand Master has been approved and is ready for use.

The Grand Lodges of Iran and Luxembourg were given recognition.

All seven District Deputy Grand Masters made excellent reports of their activities and the conditions in their several Districts.

Grand Lodge fees were increased from $1.50 to $2.00 per member. Because of increasing cost and declining membership rolls, the Grand Lodge found this amendment to its Constitution necessary.

In closing his address the Grand Master said, "I congratulate and welcome the incoming officers of Grand Lodge for this year. I am proud to be their leader and together we shall endeavor to uphold the high standards of Freemasonry throughout this jurisdiction. To do this, we shall rely on your support, co-operation and understanding, for Freemasonry, after all, depends on the individual mason. We live in times of overwhelming change, when the faith of our father and the accustomed order of things are being challenged and a totally different way of life permeating our world. It still behoves any of us to close our eyes to what is going on around us or to brush aside or treat lightly the changes that are taking place. Rather it is to re-examine and re-affirm our faith that the principles on which this Order to which we belong is founded are still essential and are practical in this modern age. I believe that Freemasonry has a tremendously important part in the world today and tomorrow. It will, in the end, depend on each individual mason, believing fully in the teachings of Masonry and putting them into practice in this daily life. This calls for effort on the part of all of us. Are we prepared to accept the challenge? If we sincerely do, I feel confident that Masonry will become a more potent force in helping to bring about the Kingdom of God on earth, the Brotherhood of Man under the Fatherhood of God." J.E.W.
